A Landscape For Humans:

A Landscape for Humans Peter Van Dresser, 1976-01-01      A Landscape Atlas of the Chesapeake Bay Watershed K. H. Ritters, 1996 A landscape approach is needed to assess ecological conditions over such a large area Some of the most important aspects of environmental change occur at the broad spatial scale of whole landscapes and these cannot always be detected in small scale studies Because landscape patterns and trends are the context for the condition of embedded ecosystems such information has proven useful for both local and regional assessments      Why Traditional Chinese Philosophy Still Matters Ming Dong Gu, 2018-02-15 Traditional Chinese philosophy if engaged at all is often regarded as an object of antiquated curiosity and dismissed as unimportant in the current age of globalization Written by a team of internationally renowned scholars this book however challenges this judgement and offers an in depth study of pre modern Chinese philosophy from an interdisciplinary perspective Exploring the relevance of traditional Chinese philosophy for the global age it takes a comparative approach analysing ancient Chinese philosophy in its relation to Western ideas and contemporary postmodernist theories The conversation extends over a broad spectrum of philosophical areas and themes ranging from metaphysics hermeneutics political theory religion and aesthetics to specific philosophical schools including Confucianism Daoism and Buddhism By engaging many time honoured philosophical issues from a comparative perspective this book bridges the gap between Eastern and Western thought and emphasises the need for a newly fortified global humanism and a deeper appreciation of different philosophical and religious values in an age gripped by large scale crises Arguing that traditional Chinese philosophy has immediate relevance to the many challenges of modern life this book will be useful to students and scholars of Asian Philosophy and Asian Studies in general      Ethnic Landscapes of America John A. Cross, 2017-06-19 This volume provides a comprehensive catalog of how various ethnic groups in the United States of America have differently shaped their cultural landscape Author John Cross links an overview of the spatial distributions of many of the ethnic populations of the United States with highly detailed discussions of specific local cultural landscapes associated with various ethnic groups This book provides coverage of several ethnic groups that were omitted from previous literature including Italian Americans Chinese Americans Japanese Americans and Arab Americans plus several smaller European ethnic populations The book is organized to provide an overview of each of the substantive ethnic landscapes in the United States Between its introduction and conclusion which looks towards the future the chapters on the various ethnic landscapes are arranged roughly in chronological order such that the timing of the earliest significant surviving landscape contribution determines the order the groups will be viewed Within each chapter the contemporary and historical spatial distribution of the ethnic groups are described the historical geography of the group s settlement is reviewed and the salient aspects of material culture that characterize or distinguish the group s ethnic landscape are discussed Ethnic Landscapes of America is designed for use in the classroom as a textbook or as a reader in a North American regional course or a cultural geography course This volume also can function as a detailed summary reference that should be of interest to geographers historians ethnic scholars other social scientists and the educated public who wish to understand the visible elements of material culture that various ethnic populations have created on the landscape

Landscape Ecology Françoise Burel, 2003-01-05 Part I Introduction Definition of a Discipline Emergence of Landscape Ecology in the History of Ecology Recognition of Heterogeneity in Ecological Systems Taking Human Activities into Account in Ecological Systems Explicit Accounting for Space and Time Landscape Ecology is based on Scientific Theories Linked to Ecology and Related Discipline

Shared Lives of Humans and Animals Tuomas Räsänen, Taina Syrjämaa, 2017-04-21 Animals are conscious beings that form their own perspective regarding the lifeworlds in which they exist and according to which they act in relation to their species and other animals In recent decades a thorough transformation in societal research has taken place as many groups that were previously perceived as being passive or subjugated objects have become active subjects This fundamental reassessment first promoted by feminist and radical studies has subsequently been followed by spatial and material turns that have brought non human agency to the fore In human animal relations despite a power imbalance animals are not mere objects but act as agents They shape our material world and our encounters with them influence the way we think about the world and ourselves This book focuses on animal agency and interactions between humans and animals It explores the reciprocity of human animal relations and the capacity of animals to act and shape human societies The chapters draw on examples from the Global North to explore how human life in modernity has been and is shaped by the sentience autonomy and physicality of various animals particularly in landscapes where communities and wild animals exist in close proximity It offers a timely contribution to animal studies environmental geography environmental history and social science and humanities studies of the environment more broadly

Landscape Ecology in Action A. Farina, 2012-12-06 In my office I am encased in bookshelves which hold an accumulation of literature on ecology that represents the papers and books over the last 50 years My students enjoy rummaging through this collection because it contains a record of the history of ecology and is full of surprises Some of the most recent material pertains to landscape ecology a subject that literally emerged fully active at the Veldhoven International Congress organized by the landscape ecologists of The Netherlands in 1981 The subject has developed quickly It has one or more journals which publish short works It has a series of text books And it has just begun a series on monographs One of the textbooks in landscape ecology is titled Principles and Methods in Landscape Ecology and was written by the Italian ecologist Almo Farina in 1998 My students like this text especially well because it is direct to the point and comprehensive Farina is on loan much of the time In the present volume Almo Farina again addresses the subject of Landscape Ecology but from a different perspective than he took in his textbook Landscape in Action focuses on the application of the principles and concepts to problem solving The two books make a pair with the first technical and conceptual and the second applied to problems of land and water at large scale

A Human Document William Hurrell

Mallock,1892 A Landscape Archaeological Study of the Mesolithic-Neolithic in the Milfield Basin, Northumberland Clive Waddington,1999 The Milfield Basin Archaeological Landscape Project was initiated in 1993 and became the major focus of Clive Waddington's PhD research This volume publishes that thesis discussing the interaction of human populations and their sites with the landscape as a whole Learning to Confront Ecological Precarity Scott Jukes,2023-07-14 This volume presents innovative approaches for confronting environmental issues and socio ecological inequality within Outdoor Environmental Education OEE Through experimentation with alternative pedagogical possibilities it explores what OEE can do in response to ecological precarity Drawing upon posthumanist theory it focuses on the enactment of more than human pedagogies that foster affirmative environmental relationships while challenging problematic cultural perspectives The 12 chapters explore various topics including place responsive pedagogies environmental stories new materialist theoretical insights and waste education practices engaging with complex environmental issues such as species extinction and climate change in the context of OEE This book provides practical examples and conceptual creativity to extend contemporary theoretical currents It offers innovative pedagogical strategies and methodological insights for OEE Researchers students and practitioners of OEE interested in applying posthumanist ideas to their work will find this volume most interesting
