Task: Produce a report Write a report that evaluates the specific challenges and issues that might be faced by a prison planning to implement a therapeutic service (as described in the hypothetical scenario provided below). Your report should be suitable for reading by a non-academic audience. TScenario Your report should be based on the following scenario: Imagine that you are a psychological consultant who has been contacted by a local prison. The governor of the prison wants to implement a therapeutic service and offer the prisoners therapy. The prison is a young offender's institute for long-term sentenced males who have been convicted of serious offences and are aged between 17 and 21. The prison is a long-term young offender institution, holding the longest sentenced young adult males in the English prison system. A number of the inmates come from low socio-economic backgrounds and some were sexually abused when they were children. A recent inspection of the prison reported that there were high levels of violence and self-harm by the inmates and it was suggested that a number of the prisoners would benefit from receiving therapy.
