California Light: A Century of Landscapes Jean Stern,Molly Siple,2011-04-12 A first of its kind celebration of the California Art Club a society whose members have for one hundred years captured California s staggeringly beautiful landscapes in resplendent plein air paintings At the dawn of the twentieth century California became home to artists from all over America and Europe who aspired to depict the state's awe-inspiring natural landscapes on canvas. In 1909 these artists founded the California Art Club which stands today as one of the most esteemed painting societies in the United States. The club has achieved distinction for its commitment to plein air painting in an Impressionistic style in which painters work outdoors in order to capture the ephemeral moment when the natural lighting of a landscape elevates an already beautiful scene into something sublime. Celebrating a century of unique artwork, this volume presents impeccable images of the art club's masterworks, including unforgettable paintings of California's stunning and varied beauty: desert vistas, plunging coastlines, verdant vineyards, charming towns, and snow-topped mountains.

Art in California Jenni Sorkin, 2021-10-26. A fully illustrated history of modern and contemporary art in California from the early twentieth century to the present day. This introduction to the art of California focuses on the distinctive role the state played in the history of American art from early twentieth century photography and Chicano mural painting to the fiber art movement and beyond. Shaped by a compelling network of geopolitical influences including waves of migration and exchange from the Pacific Rim and Mexico, the influx of African Americans immediately after World War II and global immigration after quotas were lifted in the 1960s, California is a center of artistic activity whose influence extends far beyond its physical boundaries. Including work by artists Yun Gee, Helen Lundberg, Henry Taylor, Richard Diebenkorn, Albert Bierstadt, Chiura Obata, and Judith Baca among many others, art historian Jenni Sorkin tells California's story as a place at the forefront of radical developments in artistic culture. Organized chronologically and thematically with full color illustrations throughout, this attractive study stands as an important chronicle of California's contribution to modern and contemporary art in the United States and globally. In one stunning volume, Art in California addresses the vast appetite for knowledge on contemporary art in California.

The years around the turn of the century were a dynamic time in American art. Different and seemingly contradictory movements were evolving and the dominant style that emerged during this period was Impressionism. Based in part on the broken brushwork and high keyed palette of Claude Monet it was a form especially suited to the dramatic landscape and shimmering light of California. This book celebrates forty Impressionist painters who worked in California from 1900 through the beginning of the Great Depression. It includes widely recognized California artists such as Maurice Braun and Guy Rose, less well known artists such as Mary DeNeale Morgan and Donna Schuster and eastern painters who worked briefly in the region such as Childe Hassam and William Merritt Chase. The contributors' essays examine the socioeconomic forces that shaped this art movement as well as the ways in which the art reflected California's self-cultivated image as a healthful sun splashed arcadia.

Luminous gorgeously realized landscape paintings made en plein air by members of the California Art Club over the past 100 years. This volume showcases 200 works by California Art Club artists who have focused on the evocative seascapes, charming seaside towns and beach communities from San Diego to San Francisco, demonstrating a breathtaking range of natural settings suffused with atmosphere, drama and light. Since the dawn of the twentieth century California has been home to artists from all over America and Europe who aspired to depict the state's compelling natural landscapes on canvas. In 1909 these artists founded the California Art Club which stands today as one of the most esteemed painting societies in the United States. This volume, which follows Skira Rizzoli's luminous California Light: A Century of Landscapes, presents more of the club's distinctive and lush plein air painting in an impressionistic style in which painters work outdoors in order to capture the ephemeral moment when the natural lighting of a landscape elevates an already beautiful scene into something sublime. As observed by W. H. Auden: "Thousands have lived without love, not one without water. We as a species are drawn to the sea; artists perhaps even more so than others, as beautifully evidenced in this book."

And entertaining essays by eight astute scholars present new information and insights about Arts and Crafts architecture and urban planning, garden design, interiors and resorts, tiles, pottery, metalwork and furniture. Thoughtful introductory and closing essays analyze the movement and its visual and conceptual legacies in the context of that beguilingly idealistic era. Concluding the book are information rich endnotes and a carefully focused bibliography. plus
