Constitution In Congress:

The Constitution in Congress David P. Currie,1997-05-15 Thus the First Congress left us a rich legacy of arguments over the meaning of a variety of constitutional provisions and the quality of those arguments was impressively high The Constitution in Congress David P. Currie,2005-05-10 The Constitution in Congress series has been called nothing less than a biography of the US Constitution for its in depth examination of the role that the legislative and executive branches have played in the development of constitutional interpretation This third volume in the series the early installments of which dealt with the Federalist and Jeffersonian eras continues this examination with the Jacksonian revolution of 1829 and subsequent efforts by Democrats to dismantle Henry Clay s celebrated American System of nationalist economics David P Currie covers the political events of the period leading up to the start of the Civil War showing how the slavery question although seldom overtly discussed in the debates included in this volume underlies the Southern insistence on strict interpretation of federal powers Like its predecessors The Constitution in Congress Democrats and Whigs will be an invaluable reference for legal scholars and constitutional historians alike Congress, the Constitution and the Supreme Court Charles Warren,1925 An Exposition of the Constitution of the United States Henry Flanders,1877 Congress's Constitution Joshua Aaron Chafetz,2017-01-01 Cover Half Title Title Copyright Dedication Contents Acknowledgments Introduction PART ONE SEPARATION OF POWERS MULTIPLICITY Prelude 1 Political Institutions in the Public Sphere 2 The Role of Congress PART TWO CONGRESSIONAL HARD POWERS 3 The Power of the Purse 4 The Personnel Power 5 Contempt of Congress PART THREE CONGRESSIONAL SOFT POWERS 6 The Freedom of Speech or Debate 7 Internal Discipline 8 Cameral Rules Conclusion Toward a Normative Evaluation Notes Index A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W Y Z The Law of the American Constitution Charles Kellogg Burdick,1922 The Congressional globe ,1868 Congressional Record United States. Ritchie,2010-07-06 Many scholars believe that the framers of the Constitution intended Congress to be the preeminent branch of government Indeed no other legislature in the world approaches its power Yet most Americans have only a murky idea of how it works In The U S Congress Donald A Ritchie a congressional historian for more than thirty years takes readers on a fascinating behind the scenes tour of Capitol Hill pointing out the key players explaining their behavior and translating parliamentary language into plain English No mere civics lesson this eye opening book provides an insider s perspective on Congress matched with a professional historian s analytical insight After a swift survey of the creation of Congress by the constitutional convention he begins to unscrew the nuts and pull out the bolts What is it like to campaign for congress To attract large donors To enter either house with no seniority He answers these questions and more explaining committee assignments and committee work the role of staffers and lobbyists floor proceedings parliamentary rules and coalition building Ritchie explores the great effort put into constituent service as representatives and senators respond to requests from groups and individuals as well as media relations and news coverage He also explores how the grand concepts we all know from civics class checks and balances advise and consent congressional oversight work in practice in an age of strong presidents and a muscular Senate minority no matter which party is in that position In this sparkling addition to Oxford s Very Short Introduction series Donald Ritchie moves beyond the cynicism and the platitudes to provide a gem of a portrait of how Congress really works

Araiza,2015 For over a century Congress s power to enforce the Fourteenth Amendment s guarantee of the equal protection of the laws has presented judges and scholars with a puzzle What does it mean for Congress to enforce such a wide ranging open ended provision when the Supreme Court has insisted on its own superiority in interpreting the Fourteenth Amendment In Enforcing the Equal Protection Clause William D Araiza offers a unique understanding of Congress s enforcement power and its relationship to the Court s claim to supremacy when interpreting the Constitution Drawing on the history of American thinking about equality in the decades before and after the Civil War Araiza argues that congressional enforcement and judicial supremacy can co exist but only if the Court limits its role to ensuring that enforcement legislation reasonably promotes the core meaning of the Equal Protection Clause Much of the Court s equal protection jurisprudence stops short of stating such core meaning thus leaving Congress free subject to appropriate judicial checks to enforce the full scope of the constitutional guarantee Araiza s thesis reconciles the Supreme Court s ultimate role in interpreting the Constitution with Congress s superior capacity to transform the Fourteenth Amendment s majestic principles into living reality The Fourteenth Amendment s Enforcement Clause raises difficult issues of separation of powers federalism and constitutional rights Araiza illuminates each of these in this scholarly timely work that is both intellectually rigorous but also accessible to non specialist readers Publisher s description

Constitution In Congress Introduction

In the digital age, access to information has become easier than ever before. The ability to download Constitution In Congress has revolutionized the way we consume written content. Whether you are a student looking for course material, an avid reader searching for your next favorite book, or a professional seeking research papers, the option to download Constitution In Congress has opened up a world of possibilities. Downloading Constitution In Congress provides numerous advantages over physical copies of books and documents. Firstly, it is incredibly convenient. Gone are the days of carrying around heavy textbooks or bulky folders filled with papers. With the click of a button, you can gain immediate access to valuable resources on any device. This convenience allows for efficient studying, researching, and reading on the go. Moreover, the cost-effective nature of downloading Constitution In Congress has democratized knowledge. Traditional books and academic journals can be expensive, making it difficult for individuals with limited financial resources to access information. By offering free PDF downloads, publishers and authors are enabling a wider audience to benefit from their work. This inclusivity promotes equal opportunities for learning and personal growth. There are numerous websites and platforms where individuals can download Constitution In Congress. These websites range from academic databases offering research papers and journals to online libraries with an expansive collection of books from various genres. Many authors and publishers also upload their work to specific websites, granting readers access to their content without any charge. These platforms not only provide access to existing literature but also serve as an excellent platform for undiscovered authors to share their work with the world. However, it is essential to be cautious while downloading Constitution In Congress. Some websites may offer pirated or illegally obtained copies of copyrighted material. Engaging in such activities not only violates copyright laws but also undermines the efforts of authors, publishers, and researchers. To ensure ethical downloading, it is advisable to utilize reputable websites that prioritize the legal distribution of content. When downloading Constitution In Congress, users should also consider the potential security risks associated with online platforms. Malicious actors may exploit vulnerabilities in unprotected websites to distribute malware or steal personal information. To protect themselves, individuals should ensure their devices have reliable antivirus software installed and validate the legitimacy of the websites they are downloading from. In conclusion, the ability to download Constitution In Congress has transformed the way we access information. With the convenience, cost-effectiveness, and accessibility it offers, free PDF downloads have become a popular choice for students, researchers, and book lovers worldwide. However, it is crucial to engage in ethical downloading practices and prioritize personal security when utilizing online platforms. By doing so, individuals can make the most of the vast array of free PDF resources available and embark on a journey of continuous learning and intellectual growth.
