Brother Fire Poems:

Brother Fire W.S. Di Piero, 2013-09-04 In this rich collection W S Di Piero seeks the spirit and substance of illumination in all its forms He finds meaning or shows us how we attempt to do so in the rituals and events that mark our year the Fourth of July Halloween New Year s Eve and in the ordinary activities of mowing dancing drinking trying to stay warm The Kiss recounts how as a young man the poet was not called to the priesthood in Prayer Meeting he recalls watching his mother iron with her hopeless routine longing and declares I wanted more than what I prayed for For all their simplicity Di Piero s direct often conversational turns of phrase reveal a world aflame with troubles with love with surprising lyrical epiphanies Didn t You Say Desire Is like the elephant fog shredded north a white sun going down Bessemers fired through clouds horizoned on my dog eared stack It feels good and right to waste earnest hours of an early evening s daylight saving time in uncertainty and want these cranky climates changing in us while we haven t started dinner yet The Oxford Handbook of British and Irish War Poetry Tim Kendall, 2007-02-22 The Handbook ranges widely and in depth across 20th century war poetry incorporating detailed discussions of some of the key poets of the period It is an essential resource for scholars of particular poets and for those interested in wider debates Contributors include some of the most important international poetry critics of our time Eddic poems Guðbrandur Vigfússon, Frederick York Powell, 1883 Corpus poeticum boreale: Eddic poetry Guðbrandur Vigfússon, Frederick York Powell, 1883 Poems: My brother's grave, Dream of life, and other poems John Moultrie, 1876 Reading the Ruins Leo Mellor, 2011-09-15 From fires to ghosts and from flowers to surrealist apparitions the bombsites of London were both unsettling and inspiring terrains Yet throughout the years prior to the Second World War British culture was already filled with ruins and fragments They appeared as content with visions of tottering towers and scraps of paper and also as form in the shapes of broken poetics But from the outbreak of the Second World War what had been an aesthetic mode began to resemble a proleptic template During that conflict many modernist writers such as Graham Greene Louis MacNeice David Jones J F Hendry Elizabeth Bowen T S Eliot and Rose Macaulay engaged with devastated cityscapes and the altered lives of a nation at war To understand the potency of the bombsites both in the Second World War and after Reading the Ruins brings together poetry novels and short stories as well as film and visual art Emergency Writing Anna Teekell, 2018-06-15 Taking seriously Ireland s euphemism for World War II the Emergency Anna Teekell s Emergency Writing asks both what happens to literature written during a state of emergency and what it means for writing to be a response to an emergency Anchored in close textual analysis of works by Samuel Beckett Elizabeth Bowen Flann O Brien Louis MacNeice Denis Devlin and Patrick Kavanagh and supported by archival material and historical research Emergency Writing shows how Irish late modernism was a response to the sociopolitical conditions of a newly independent Irish Free State and to a fully emerged modernism in literature and art What emerges in Irish writing in the wake of Independence of the Gaelic Revival of Yeats and of Joyce is a body of work that invokes modernism as a set of discursive practices with which to counter the Free State's political pieties Emergency Writing provides a new approach to literary modernism and to the literature of conflict considering the ethical dilemma of performing neutrality emotionally, politically and rhetorically in a world at war Irish Writing London: Volume 1 Tom Herron, 2012-12-06 The presence of Irish writers is almost invisible in literary studies of London Irish Writing London redresses the critical deficit A range of experts on particular Irish writers reflect on the diverse experiences and impact this immigrant group has had on the city Such sustained attention to a location and concern of Irish writing long passed over opens up new terrain to not only reveal but create a history of Irish London writing Alongside discussions of Wilde Shaw Joyce and Yeats the writing of the political nationalist Katharine Tynan and work of Irish Language writer Conaire is considered Written by an international array of scholars these new essays on key figures challenge the deep seated stereotype of what constitutes the proper domain of Irish writing producing a study that is both culturally and critically alert and a dynamic contribution to literary criticism of the city
