Bruno Munari Miroslava Hajek, Bruno Munari, Luca Zaffarano, 2012

Bruno Munari (1907–1998) played a pioneering role in the evolution of twentieth-century art and design, his work exerting an influence that stretched far beyond the borders of Italy. Munari described the roots of his work as his Futurist past, but his influences were extremely varied, also reflecting the aesthetics and sensibilities of Constructivism, Dada, and Surrealism. This exhibition at the Estorick Collection in London explores Munari's artistic research between 1927 and 1950, spanning the artist's Futurist phase and early investigation of the possibilities of kinetic sculpture, the immediate post-war years during which he became a leading figure of abstract painting, and his subsequent experiments with projected light and installation-based work.

Italian Futurism and the Poetry of Materiality Dalila Colucci, 2024-06-17

This monograph offers the first ever full-length analysis of the most irreverent book of Italian Futurism, L'anguria lirica, printed in 1934 on tin metal sheets with design and poetic text by Tullio d'Albisola and illustrations by Bruno Munari. This study, which features the unabridged reproduction of the pages of the tin book accompanied by the first English translation of the poem, aims to disentangle the complex relationship between text and image in this total artwork. It shows how the endless series of material transformations at its core—of woman into food, of love into desecrating religion, of man into machine, of poetry into matter—fostered a radical change in poetry writing, thus breaking away from a stagnant lyrical past.
