The Legend of Thunderfoot Bill Wallace,2014-08-12 The day of the Naming is an important one for young roadrunners That s when roadrunner parents judge the speed courage and hunting skill of their offspring and choose fitting names for them One proud fledgling dreams of being named Muscles or Dash or even Hunter If only he hadn t pursued those three juicy grasshoppers for a final snack If only he d remembered his parents lesson Always look before you leap If only he d paid more attention to the mouse family that had lost two children to a nearby snake If only the rattler had given some warning before it struck Miraculously the young roadrunner survives the attack but not without damage With their son s feet swollen to such an enormous size his parents have no choice but to give him the humiliating name of Thunderfoot It s enough to make a roadrunner wallow in self pity and give up But the only thing bigger than Thunderfoot s feet is his heart and with some not always gentle goading from a wise old gopher tortoise named Berland he finds the courage to go forward and seek his destiny and to become the stuff of legends
