Contemporary Chinese Society and Politics Andrew B. Kipnis, Luigi Tomba, Jonathan Unger, 2009 The first volume brings together the best work to have been published on Chinese society and politics in the Maoist period 1949-76 Volume II meanwhile collects the key research dealing with both the theoretical implications and the empirical complexities of the post Mao evolution at the highest level of the political leadership The distinctions between urban and rural are especially significant in the People's Republic not least because of China's system of residential registration which denies rural residents any right to live permanently in a city and the final two volumes are organized with these fundamental distinctions in mind Volume III gathers the best work on topics including urban spaces e.g. the creation and dismantlement of the socialist city the creation of virtual cities and the making of Olympics Beijing the newly prosperous constituencies including China's new rich and the development of a huge and increasingly self-identifying middle class China's working class internal migration and urban social change Volume IV includes work brought together under themes such as rural politics family farming changes in rural society in a period of economic reform and China's ethnic minorities
