Skeleton Outline

Summary

An agent acting under a durable health care power of attorney is authorized to make health care decisions on behalf of the principal whenever the principal lacks the capacity to make a decision herself.

A duly appointed agent may make decisions on behalf of the principal without the concurrence of the principals relatives. The durable power lasts unless rescinded by the principal.

Health care durable powers statutes provide the agents acting in good faith are immune from civil suit.

The statute which precludes a distribution of a share of a decedent's estate to an individual who caused the decedent's death is called a slayer statute.

Intro

1st issue - 40%

All states have adopted statutes authorizing advance directives and durable health care powers. An advance directive(living will) specifies the patients non treatment preferences should sue become incapacitated.

Unless a durable power specifies otherwise a designated agent is empowered to make health care decisions for the principal whenever the principal lacks capacity.

In the absence of specific instructions, a designated agent shall make decisions for the principal "in accordance with the agents determination of the principals best interest"

If the patient did not execute a durable health care power than a majority of the siblings would have had to agree upon health care decisions for their mother.
