promise to someday write a book about the things that happened His father also returned the letters that were written to him which described the language used the abuse suffered and the status of race and homosexual relations as well as the horrors of war in no uncertain terms The letters remained untouched for nearly fifty years but he would sometimes recount an incident to friends or family receiving in return an urging to write the stories for them His older daughter chronologically organized the letters while his other daughter edited the manuscript as it was being written The idea to write this book as well as its title struck while joking with fellow GI s in the barracks about someday telling the world that no one would believe the things they were doing in the name of serving their country They would develop audacious pranks to outdo one another or minimize a situation and just be glad to live another day They often remarked about spending parents and grandparents tax money on atrocious wastes of effort and material The military personnel during the late 60s fit three distinct categories juicers heads and straights The first included men from every state since almost everyone drank now and then The second referred to the use of acid by some while smokers and dopers fit right in Lastly there were some individuals who preferred not to get wasted by any means Homosexuals and blacks could occupy any of the groups The story details army life for a middle class Midwest man who is introduced to conditions and concepts he had never imagined in Europe then in the States and finally in Vietnam The intended audience is adult mostly because of the language and the portrayal of man s cruelty to man while on the other hand the book is both nostalgic as well as informative El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print ,2006
