Trees, Shrubs, and Vines for Attracting Birds Richard M. DeGraaf, 2002 A new edition of the classic guide to creating a habitat to attract birds

Toni Morrison's Beloved and the Apotropaic Imagination Kathleen Marks, 2002 Toni Morrison's Beloved and the Apotropaic Imagination investigates Toni Morrison's Beloved in light of ancient Greek influences arguing that the African American experience depicted in the novel can be set in a broader context than is usually allowed Kathleen Marks gives a history of the apotropaic from ancient to modern times and shows the ways that Beloved's protagonist Sethe and her community engage the apotropaic as a mode of dealing with their communal suffering Apotropaic from the Greek meaning to turn away from refers to rituals that were performed in ancient times to ward off evil deities Modern scholars use the term to denote an action that in attempting to prevent an evil causes that very evil Freud employed the apotropaic to explain his thought concerning Medusa and the castration complex and Derrida found the apotropaic's logic of self sabotage consonant with his own thought Marks draws on this critical history and argues that Morrison's heroine's effort to keep the past at bay is apotropaic a series of gestures aimed at resisting a danger a threat an imperative These gestures anticipate mirror and put into effect that which they seek to avoid one does what one finds horrible so as to mitigate its horror In Beloved Sethe's killing of her baby reveals this dynamic she kills the baby in order to save it As do all great heroes Sethe transgresses boundaries and such transgressions bring with them terrific dangers for example the figure Beloved Yet Sethe's action has ritualistic undertones that link it to the type of primal crimes that can bring relief to a petrified community It is through these apotropaic gestures that the heroine and the community resist what Morrison calls cultural amnesia and engage in a shared past finally inaugurating a new order of love Toni Morrison's Beloved and the Apotropaic Imagination is eclectic in its approach calling upon Greek religion Greek mythology and underworld images and psychology Marks looks at the losses and benefits of the kind of self damage self agency the apotropaic affords Such an approach helps to frame the questions of the role of suffering in human life the relation between humans and the underworld and the uses of memory and history Publishers website

Toni Morrison Lucille P. Fultz, 2003 In this innovative study Lucille P Fultz explores Toni Morrison's rich body of work uncovering the interplay between differences love and hate masculinity and femininity black and white past and present wealth and poverty that lie at the heart of these vibrant and complex narratives Much has already been made of Morrison's treatment of race but Playing with Difference demonstrates that throughout her work Morrison creates a sophisticated matrix of difference layering a multitude of other distinctions onto the racial one and observing how these potencies of difference play themselves out in her characters Fultz's holistic thematic approach to her subject enables her to move deftly among the novels and stories building a nuanced understanding of how markers of difference influence Morrison's narrative decisions She examines Morrison's facility with imagery and wordplay and discusses the ways in which Morrison contends with the expectations of gender and race that have stiffened into traditions or worse prejudices. Discussing the issues that unite and divide characters, Fultz views each novel from The Bluest Eye (1970) to Paradise (1998) along with stories such as Recitatif as parts of an elaborate and dynamic whole. The Common Chokecherry (Prunus Demissa) as a Plant Poisonous to Sheep and Cattle Charles E. Fleming, 1926 The Complete Language of Trees - Pocket Edition S. Theresa Dietz, 2024-09-10 The Complete Language of Trees is a comprehensive and neatly organized dictionary of over 400 types of trees that recognizes each species name, characteristics, and hidden properties from mythology, legends, and folklore around the world, now in a pocket size edition for easy on-the-go reference.

The Lakota Way of Strength and Courage Joseph M. Marshall, 2012-02-01 In Lakota tradition, the bow and arrow were more than tools for hunting or battle. The bow's resilience and flexibility, the arrow's grace and power, the archer's focus and patience in these we find the essential qualities for living a life of strength, purpose, and simplicity. In The Lakota Way of Strength and Courage, Joseph M. Marshall builds upon the central metaphor of the bow and arrow to provide a treasury of insights, stories, and irreplaceable wisdom. With eloquent prose and an elder's perspective, Marshall draws from traditional stories, the history of the Lakota, and his own experiences to offer timeless lessons on transformation, what the journey of the Lakota people teaches us about preserving what is essential as our external circumstances change, simplicity, the story of Grandmother Grass Braid who understood that the more you know, the less you need to carry, purpose, how the world unveils our purpose to us as revealed in the story of the Keeper of the Winter Count, strength, the moving story of Henry One Bull, and how adversity teaches us to develop the true core of our strength, resiliency, the lessons of Grandma Red Leaf on facing the challenges of life with the best we have to offer. Once the Lakota people relied on the ash bow and the willow arrow to provide food and sustenance, today these simple tools can offer us something even more precious: a way to nourish our souls with spiritual wisdom. Joseph M. Marshall offers a book that is at once profound, honest, and rich with meaning as he reveals The Lakota Way of Strength and Courage. Pueblo Ruins of the Galisteo Basin, New Mexico Nels Christian Nelson, 1924 Plant Introductions (1895-1927) Niels Ebbesen Hansen, 1927 The Ornamental Trees of South Dakota Niels Ebbesen Hansen, 1931 Toni Morrison and the Natural World Anissa Janine Wardi, 2021-06-28 Winner of the Toni Morrison Society Book Prize for Best Single Authored Book 2019-2022. Critics have routinely excluded African American literature from ecocritical inquiry despite the fact that the literary tradition has from its inception proved to be steeped in environmental concerns that address elements of the natural world and relate nature to the transatlantic slave trade, plantation labor, and nationhood. Toni Morrison's work is no exception. Toni Morrison and the Natural World: An Ecology of Color is the first full-length ecocritical investigation of the Nobel Laureate's novels and brings to the fore an unequalled engagement between race and nature. Morrison's ecological consciousness holds that human geographies are enmeshed with nonhuman nature. It follows then that ecology, the branch of biology that studies how people relate to each other and their environment is an apt framework for this book. The interrelationships and interactions between individuals and community and between organisms and the biosphere are central to this analysis. They highlight that the human and nonhuman are part of a larger ecosystem of interfacing and transformations. Toni Morrison and the Natural World is organized by color: examining soil brown in The Bluest Eye and Paradise; plant life green in Song of Solomon; Beloved and Home; bodies of water blue in Tar Baby and Love; and fire orange in Sula and God Help the Child. By providing a racially inflected reading of nature, Toni Morrison and the Natural World makes an important contribution to the field of environmental studies and provides a landmark for Morrison scholarship.
