Artistic Creation and Ethical Criticism Ted Nannicelli, 2020-05-05 Artistic Creation and Ethical Criticism a study in philosophical aesthetics investigates an idea that underpins the ethical criticism of art but that is rarely acknowledged and poorly understood namely that the ethical criticism of art involves judgments not only of the attitudes a work endorses or solicits but of what artists do to create the work The book pioneers an innovative production oriented approach to the study of the ethical criticism of art one that will provide a detailed philosophical account of the intersection of ethics and artistic creation as well as conceptual tools that can guide future philosophizing and criticism Ted Nannicelli offers three arguments concerning the ethical criticism of art First he argues that judgments of an artwork s ethical value are already often made in terms of how it was created and examines why some art forms more readily lend themselves to this form of ethical appraisal than others He then asserts that production oriented evaluations of artworks are less contested than other sorts of ethical criticism and so lead to certain practical consequences from censure dismissal and prosecution to shifts in policy and even legislation Finally Nannicelli defends the production oriented approach arguing that it is not only tacit in many of our art appreciative practices but is in fact rationally warranted There are many cases in which we should ethically critique artworks in terms of how they are created because this approach handles cases that other approaches cannot and results in plausible judgments about the works relative ethical and artistic value The concise powerful arguments presented here will appeal to moral philosophers philosophers of art and aesthetics and critics interested in the intersection of artistic production and criticism and ethics

A Psychological Approach to Literary Criticism Norman Raymond Frederick Maier, Harry Willard Reninger, 1933 The Mature Church Emmanuel D. Mbennah, 2013-08-09 In this book Emmanuel Mbennah argues that Christian spiritual maturity is the bridge between the new identity of the Christian articulated in Ephesians 1:3 and the moral code of the Christian life commensurate with the new identity presented in Ephesians 4:17-6:20 From an interpretation of Ephesians 4:13 Mbennah brings to the fore what Christian spiritual maturity is and why it is imperative He argues that Ephesians 4:1-16 is about spiritual maturity and not about Christian unity except unity as a by product of maturity A case study in which the meaning of spiritual maturity is used as a critical standard to evaluate the spiritual maturity of a church in a particular context further clarifies the meaning of spiritual maturity and demonstrates what a sad state of immaturity a church could be in Mbennah calls for the Church's return to the pursuit of maturity and a return to the subject in New Testament scholarship Literary Theory and Criticism Patricia Waugh, 2006 This volume offers a comprehensive account of modern literary criticism presenting the field as part of an ongoing historical and intellectual tradition Featuring thirty nine specially commissioned chapters from an international team of esteemed contributors it fills a large gap in the market by combining the accessibility of single authored selections with a wide range of critical perspectives The volume is divided into four parts Part One covers the key philosophical and aesthetic origins of literary theory while Part Two discusses the foundational movements and thinkers in the first half of the twentieth century Part Three offers introductory overviews of the most important movements and thinkers in modern literary theory and Part Four looks at emergent trends and future directions criticizes critics The critics examined are among the most vital and significant personalities of their time To study Sainte follow the main movement of this thought through this period and build up the necessary background for understanding the ideas of the present day whether they continue this earlier thought or react from it The so called anti intellectualist
