Treasures of the Earth Saleem H. Ali,2009-01-01 Would the world be a better place if human societies were somehow able to curb their desires for material goods Saleem Ali s pioneering book links human wants and needs by providing a natural history of consumption and materialism with scientific detail and humanistic nuance It argues that simply disavowing consumption of materials is not likely to help in planning for a resource scarce future given global inequality development imperatives and our goals for a democratic global society Rather than suppress the creativity and desire to discover that is often embedded in the exploration and production of material goods which he calls the treasure impulse Ali proposes a new environmental paradigm one that accepts our need to consume treasure for cultural and developmental reasons but warns of our concomitant need to conserve In evaluating the impact of treasure consumption on resource rich countries he argues that there is a way to consume responsibly and alleviate global poverty Jewels Victoria Finlay,2007-08-14 Throughout history precious stones have inspired passions and poetry quests and curses sacred writings and unsacred actions In this scintillating book journalist Victoria Finlay embarks on her own globe circling search for the real stories behind some of the gems we prize most Blending adventure travel geology exciting new research and her own irresistible charm Finlay has fashioned a treasure hunt for some of the most valuable glamorous and mysterious substances on earth With the same intense curiosity and narrative flair she displayed in her widely praised book Color Finlay journeys from the underground opal churches of outback Australia to the once pearl rich rivers of Scotland from the peridot mines on an Apache reservation in Arizona to the remote ruby mines in the mountains of northern Burma She risks confronting scorpions to crawl through Cleopatra s long deserted emerald mines tries her hand at gem cutting in the dusty Sri Lankan city where Marco Polo bartered for sapphires and investigates a rumor that fifty years ago most of the world s amber was mined by prisoners in a Soviet gulag Jewels is a unique and often exhilarating voyage through history across cultures deep into the earth s mantle and up to the glittering heights of fame power and wealth From the fabled curse of the Hope Diamond to the disturbing truths about how pearls are cultured to the peasants who were once executed for carrying amber to the centuries old quest by magicians and scientists to make a perfect diamond Jewels tells dazzling stories with a wonderment and brilliance truly worthy of its subjects The Windsor Magazine ,1898 The Graphic ,1930 Saint Pauls ,1871
