Ambrosian Absolution Steven G. Deaton, 2004-02 Ambrosian Absolution Steven G Deaton, 2021-11-27 This is the third and final book in the series of The Reperception of Circadian Rhythm and The Weight of a Suggestion This Ambrosian Absolution takes the reader out of the profound darkness of love and life and back into the light closing the doors left open In this powerful dramatic and poetically masterminded opera the author Steven G Deaton takes us into his world of love and life Torn between two Queens he shares passion and guilt about an undying love for both a respectable commitment to one and disturbing commitment to the other He describes what each of the Queens mean to him in his heart felt portrayal of love all the while questioning the Father of All in search for the answers of life He finally finds peace within and the strength to move forward by granting the one last request of his father Curtis T Doell We met him when he was a young soldier we watched as he grew to be a police officer and later as he matured into a pilot Now we see Mr Deaton in the central point of his life He has subsequently journeyed from sunset to sundown through the pages of his books This Mr Deaton s third book deviates from his prior genre He may surprise readers by the way he has softened his narrative to tell his tale of love Mr Deaton again exposes another side perhaps a more vulnerable side as he escapes further into his drama by exposing his love for one woman The reader becomes the spectator in the author s operatic stage show Is this book going to complete the trilogy of the author s corporeal life Or can we expect more In Mr Deaton s own words only time will tell D E Walsh Ambrosian
