Dark Green Religion Bron Raymond Taylor,2010 A love of green may be a human universal Deepening the palette of green scholarship Bron Taylor proves remarkably to be both an encyclopedist and a visionary Jonathan Benthall author of Returning to Religion Why a Secular Age is Haunted by Faith This important book provides insight into how a profound sense of relation to nature offers many in the modern world a vehicle for attaining a spiritual wholeness akin to what has been historically associated with established religion In this sense Dark Green Religion offers both understanding and hope for a world struggling for meaning and purpose beyond the isolation of the material here and now Stephen Kellert Yale University School of Forestry and Environmental Studies In this thought provoking volume Bron Taylor explores the seemingly boundless efforts by human beings to understand the nature of life and our place in the universe Examining in depth the ways in which influential philosophers and naturalists have viewed this relationship Taylor contributes to the further development of thought in this critically important area where our depth of understanding will play a critical role in our survival Peter H Raven President

Missouri Botanical Garden Carefully researched strongly argued originally conceived and very well executed this book is a vital contribution on a subject of immense religious political and environmental importance It s also a great read Roger S Gottlieb author of A Greener Faith Religious Environmentalism and our Planet s Future A fascinating analysis of our emotional and spiritual relationship to nature Whether you call it dark green religion or something else Bron Taylor takes us through our spiritual relationship with our planet its ecosystems and evolution in an enlightened and completely undogmatic manner Dr Claude Martin Former Director General World Wildlife Fund An excellent collection of guideposts for perplexed students and scholars about the relationships of nature religions spirituality animism pantheism deep ecology Gaia and land ethics and for the environmentalist seeking to make the world a better place through green religion as a social force Fikret Berkes author of Sacred Ecology Traditional Ecological Knowledge and Resource Management Dark Green Religion shows conclusively how nature has inspired a growing religious movement on the planet contesting the long reign of many older faiths Taylor expertly guides us through an astonishing array of thinkers past and present who have embraced in part or whole the new religion I was thoroughly convinced that this movement has indeed become a major force on Earth with great potential consequences for our environmental ethics Donald Worster University of Kansas In this exceptionally interesting and informative book Bron Taylor has harvested the fruits of years of pioneering research in what amounts to a new field in religious studies the study of how religious spiritual themes show up in the work of people concerned about nature in many diverse ways Taylor persuasively argues that appreciation of nature s sacred or spiritual dimension both informs and motivates the work of individuals ranging from radical environmentalists and surfers to eco tourism leaders and museum curators I highly recommend this book for everyone interested learning more about the surprising extent to which religious spiritual influences many of those who work to protect to exhibit or to represent the natural world Michael E Zimmerman Director Center for Humanities and the Arts University of Colorado at Boulder

What It Means to Be Human (Colour Edition) Taro Maeyashiki, 2025-09-21 This book What It Means to Be Human Moral and Existential Questions in British and American Literature is a selective anthology of academic articles exploring the wide and complex field of American and British literature from the 17th to the 21st century their moral psychological philosophical and sociological implications and closer deeper reading of a rich variety of texts All chapters engage the reader in a conversation with particular works that throw light on both their own time and place and the issues that are always woven through the fabric of human life The spiritual despair of Melville s Captain Ahab the moral uncertainty of Twain s Huck Finn the metaphysical skepticism of The Mysterious Stranger the audacity of Charlotte Bront s proclamation of female empowerment Ian McEwan s painful reflection on guilt and the impossibility of redemption these essays speak to the contradictions discomfort and desire both in individuals and in the broader community that literature reveals and engages with Even more it is the study of connections the collection makes between time and genre Thus it is easy to see how Melville s metaphysical preoccupations were countered by Thoreau's gentle yearning for simplicity Salinger's alienation of youth could be read against Hawthorne's tragic dark allegories of faith and disenchantment The psychological disintegration of The Yellow Wallpaper and the absurdity of existence in The Sun Also Rises are cited in the stories of spiritual revolt and social criticism The Fool's ironic insight in Shakespeare's King Lear serves as a connotative precursor for the post modernist fragmentation of the quest for truth as it emerges in the self exploring wanderings of Holden Caulfield The common thread that links this wide ranging exploration of literary questions is the sense that at its best literature does not just mirror reality it ruptures relations displaces certainties and wrestles us from complacency in our understanding of justice love freedom and the precarious scaffolding of the self These fictions never yield clear answers or definitive truths rather they leave us in a state of discomfort and uncertainty amid contradiction and moral ambiguity Moreover most importantly they beckon us always to hear the thoughts of those seated at the intersection of art and ethics I hope this volume will be a space for continued thought and dialogue and a source of inspiration for the readers to return to the literary works to interrogate resist remember and humanize
