Anti Memories Paperback:

Memoirs of an Anti-Semite Gregor Von Rezzori, 2011-12-07 The elusive narrator of this beautifully written complex and powerfully disconcerting novel is the scion of a decayed aristocratic family from the farther reaches of the defunct Austro-Hungarian Empire In five psychologically fraught episodes he revisits his past from adolescence to middle age a period that coincides with the twentieth century's ugliest years Central to each episode is what might be called the narrator's Jewish Question He is no Nazi To the contrary he is apolitical accommodating cosmopolitan He has Jewish friends and Jewish lovers and their Jewishness is a matter of abiding fascination to him His deepest and most defining relationship may even be the strange dance of attraction and repulsion that throughout his life he has conducted with this forbidden desired inescapable imaginary Jewish other And yet it is just this relationship that has blinded him to and makes him complicit in the terrible realities of his era Lyrical witty satirical and unblinking Gregor von Rezzori's most controversial work is an intimate foray into the emotional underworld of modern European history German Literature and the First World War: The Anti-War Tradition Brian Murdoch, 2016-03-09 The period immediately following the end of the First World War witnessed an outpouring of artistic and literary creativity as those that had lived through the war years sought to communicate their experiences and opinions In Germany this manifested itself broadly into two camps one condemning the war outright the other condemning the defeat Of the former Erich Maria Remarque's All Quiet on the Western Front remains the archetypal example of an anti-war novel and one that has become synonymous with the Great War Yet the tremendous and enduring popularity of Remarque's work has to some extent eclipsed a plethora of other German anti-war writers such as Hans Chlumberg Ernst Johannsen and Adrienne Thomas In order to provide a more rounded view of German anti-war literature this volume offers a selection of essays published by Brian Murdoch over the past twenty years Beginning with a newly written introduction providing the context for the volume and surveying recent developments in the subject the essays that follow range broadly over the German anti-war literary tradition telling us much about the shifting and contested nature of the war The volume also touches upon subjects such as responsibility victimhood the problem of historical hiatus in the production and reception of novels drama poetry film and other literature written during the war in the Weimar Republic and in the Third Reich The collection also underlines the potential dangers of using novels as historical sources even when they look like diaries One essay was previously unpublished two have been augmented and three are translated into English for the first time Taken together they offer a fascinating insight into the cultural memory and literary legacy of the First World War and German anti-war texts Japan's Contested War Memories Philip A. Seaton, 2007-03-12 Japan's Contested War Memories is an important and significant book that explores the struggles within contemporary Japanese society to come to terms with Second World War history Focusing particularly on 1972 onwards the period starts with the normalization of relations with China and the return of Okinawa to Japan in 1972 and ends with the sixtieth anniversary commemorations

Analyzing the variety of ways in which the Japanese people narrate contest and interpret the past the book is also a major critique of the way the subject has been treated in much of the English language Philip Seaton concludes that war history in Japan today is more divisive and widely argued over than in any of the other major Second World War combatant nations Providing a sharp contrast to the many orthodox statements about Japanese ignorance amnesia and denial about the war this is an engaging and illuminating study that will appeal to scholars and students of Japanese history politics cultural studies society and memory theory World War II Memory and Contested Commemorations in Europe and Russia Jennifer A. Yoder, 2024-01-01 Instrumentalization of the wartime past for political gain is the subject of this study of eleven World War II commemorations Using a comparative conceptually original approach Yoder identifies the actors who manipulate memory surrounding wartime anniversaries such as the bombing of Dresden and ceremonies to honor fallen soldiers and fascist collaborators The cases of memory contestation span three geographic regions Western Europe Eastern Europe and Russia recognizing that each developed distinctive interpretations of the war and different patterns of memory politics This empirically rich study reveals the grievances that motivate memory challengers and their strategies for shaping the commemoration discourses and rituals The memory challengers toolkit includes varieties of emotional manipulation subtle distortion revisionism and full scale denial The study finds that while there are differences in context and strategy across cases and regions there are also areas of convergence Moreover a memory challenge in one country can spill over into others with serious consequences for foreign relations While World War II Memory and Contested Commemorations in Europe and Russia deals with debates and narratives about events in the last century its focus is on power persuasion and identity in the present Anti-Colonialism and the Crises of Interwar Fascism Michael Ortiz, 2023-01-12 What is fascism Is it an anomaly in the history of modern Europe Or its culmination In Anti Colonialism and the Crises of Interwar Fascism Michael Ortiz makes the case that fascism should be understood in part as an imperial phenomenon He contends that the Age of Appeasement 1935 1939 was not a titanic clash between rival socio political systems fascism and democracy but rather an imperial contest between satisfied and unsatisfied empires Historians have long debated the extent to which Western imperialisms served as ideological and intellectual precursors to European fascisms To date this scholarship has largely employed an inside out methodology that examines the imperial discourses that pushed fascist regimes outward into Africa Asia and the Americas While effective such approaches tend to ignore the ways in which these places and their inhabitants understood European fascisms Addressing this imbalance Anti Colonialism adopts an outside in approach that analyses fascist expansion from the perspective of Indian anti colonialists such as Jawaharlal Nehru Subhas Bose and Mohandas Gandhi Seen from India the crises of Interwar fascism the Second Italo Ethiopian War Spanish Civil War Second Sino Japanese War Munich Agreement and the outbreak of the Second World War were yet another eruption of imperial expansion analogous although not identical to the Scramble for Africa and the Treaty of Versailles Whether fascist democratic or imperialist Europe's great powers collectively negotiated the fate of smaller nations      The 1984 Anti-Sikh Violence Ritika Singh, 2024-10-15 This book presents a comprehensive theoretical study of fictional and non-fictional narratives of 1984 anti-Sikh violence in India. This volume contributes to the expanding field of trauma and memory studies in literature through an interdisciplinary approach. It takes perspectives from the fields of neurobiology, sociology, psychology, and literary theory to offer an integrative and fresh approach to reading and locating trauma in narratives. Going beyond a simple reading of silence, the author discusses themes which encompass othering of the Sikh body, visual, echoic, and olfactory memories, somatic expressions of trauma, experiences of women, and instances of rape and sexual atrocities and children as young witnesses and intergenerational trauma to understand questions of agency and politics of remembering. Incisive and invigorating, this book is a must-read for students of memory and trauma studies, Sikh studies, South Asian literature, gender studies, English studies, postcolonial studies, cultural studies, psychology, exclusion studies, and political sociology.      British Bulletin of Publications on Latin America, the Caribbean, Portugal and Spain, 1985      The Publishers Weekly, 1972      Dr. Abravanel's Anti-Craving Weight Loss Diet Elliott D.
