Another Republic:

Citizenship after Yugoslavia Jo Shaw, Igor Štiks, 2013-10-31 This book is the first comprehensive examination of the citizenship regimes of the new states that emerged out of the break up of Yugoslavia It covers both the states that emerged out of the initial disintegration across 1991 and 1992 Slovenia Croatia Bosnia Herzegovina the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and Macedonia as well as those that have been formed recently through subsequent partitions Serbia Montenegro and Kosovo While citizenship has often been used as a tool of ethnic engineering to reinforce the position of the titular majority in many states in other cases citizenship laws and practices have been liberalised as part of a wider political settlement intended to include minority communities more effectively in the political process Meanwhile frequent re definitions of these increasingly overlapping regimes still provoke conflicts among post Yugoslav states This volume shows how important it is for the field of citizenship studies to take into account the main changes in and varieties of citizenship regimes in the post Yugoslav states as a particular case of new state citizenship At the same time it seeks to show scholars of post Yugoslavia and the wider Balkans that the Yugoslav crisis disintegration and wars as well as the current functioning of the new and old Balkan states together with the process of their integration into the EU cannot be fully understood without a deeper understanding of their citizenship regimes This book was originally published as a special issue of Citizenship Studies
