Cumming,2015-07-16 Mobile technologies are one of the fastest growing areas of technology in education For learners they offer an appealing opportunity to transcend teacher defined knowledge and approaches by being able to access multiple alternative sources of information anytime and anywhere While the pace of engagement with and research into the educational applications of mobile technologies has picked up dramatically in the last decade there is no consolidated view of how to sustain the practices or opportunities that are being explored Sustainability is a complex but crucial issue in mobile learning as educational institutions are usually required to make substantial investments in mobile devices and associated technologies time and training to initiate mobile learning programs The complexity of sustainable mobile learning programs is further exacerbated by the fast pace of change of digital technologies where with every change new possibilities are opened up and investments required In addition educators are still attempting to reconcile institutions of formal education with informal mobile learning The book addresses these issues with a particular focus on exploring the challenges surrounding the sustainability of mobile learning in K 12 and higher education investigating the importance of sustaining mobile learning for diverse populations of students globally discussing theoretical models for the sustainability of mobile learning providing the reader with strategies for sustaining mobile learning Presenting new research alongside theoretical models and ideas for practice the book will appeal to researchers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of education and mobile learning as well as those working in teacher education

Music in Independent Schools Bernarr Rainbow, Andrew Morris, 2014

The first serious study of music in independent schools which bears eloquent witness to a high standard achieved over the last fifty years This is the first serious study of music in independent schools The high standard of musical work in such schools has long been known but now Andrew Morris and his team have provided up to date information There are contributions from seven individual schools Bedford Dulwich Eton Gresham s St Paul s Uppingham and Worksop as well as chapters about Girls Schools Preparatory Schools Choir Schools and Specialist Schools Andrew Morris was Director of Music at Bedford School for thirty two years and was President of the Music Masters and Mistresses Association in 1996 97 He is thus ideally placed to mastermind a substantial compendium which is eminently readable and absorbing The book includes material from Bernarr Rainbow s study Music in the English Public School 1990 and brings it up to date As a historian Rainbow looked back at how music developed in independent schools Progress was slow even tortuous but Rainbow s fascinating documents supported by his commentary show how idealism won through and Morris and his colleagues bear eloquent witness to the very positive development over the last fifty years ANDREW MORRIS taught in secondary modern grammar and comprehensive schools in London before becoming Director of Music at Bedford School for thirty two years He was President of the Music Masters and Mistresses Association from 1996 97 and President of the RAM Club at the Royal Academy of Music 2005 06 He has examined for the ABRSM for over thirty years BERNARR RAINBOW 1914 1998 is widely recognised as the leading authority on the history of music education His seminal books are all published by Boydell and are listed on the back pages of this volume His series of Classic Texts in Music Education is a major resource and in 1997 he founded the Bernarr Rainbow Trust which supports projects in music education
