Criptonomicon I:

Tomorrow through the Past Jon Lewis, 2008-12-18 Tomorrow Through the Past Neal Stephenson and the Project of Global Modernization is the first collection of scholarly essays dedicated exclusively to this important voice in contemporary American fiction. The collection grew from five essays originally presented at the 2006 XXth Century Literature Conference at the University of Louisville and the contributors are made up of graduate students, independent scholars, and university professors who hope the collection will aid general readers as well as instructors teaching Stephenson and professionals building the critical response to his work. Reading through the lenses of history and linguistic, cultural, and science fiction studies, the essays in the collection examine each of Stephenson's novels from The Big U to The Baroque Cycle, as well as his long non-fiction work on computer operating systems, In the Beginning Was the Command Line. Included in this collection is a new interview conducted with Stephenson during the summer of 2006.

The Lonely Hearts Book Club Lucy Gilmore, 2023-03-28 A young librarian and an old curmudgeon forge the unlikeliest of friendships in this charming feel-good novel about one misfit book club and the lives and loves it changed along the way. Sloane Parker lives a small, contained life as a librarian in her small, contained town. She never thinks of herself as lonely, but still she looks forward to that time every day when old curmudgeon Arthur McLachlan comes to browse the shelves and cheerfully insult her. Their sparring is such a highlight of Sloane's day that when Arthur doesn't show up one morning, she's instantly concerned. And then another day passes and another. Anxious Sloane tracks the old man down only to discover him all but bedridden and desperately struggling to hide how happy he is to see her. Wanting to bring more cheer into Arthur's gloomy life, Sloane creates an impromptu book club. Slowly, the lonely misfits of their sleepy town begin to find each other and in their book club find the joy of unlikely friendship. Because as it turns out, everyone has a special book in their heart and a reason to get lost and eventually found within the pages. Books have a way of bringing even the loneliest of souls together.

Enduring the Freedom Sean M. Maloney, 2005 Within hours of the September 11 attacks, Sean M. Maloney deciphered that Osama bin Laden and al Qaeda were the aggressors behind the despicable act. A war in Afghanistan then was inevitable. As a military historian, Maloney was determined to go there to study and record the events for posterity, if for no other reason than the education of his future students at Canada's Royal Military College. What resulted is an in-depth and up-close look at the planning, stages, deployment, and aftermath of Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan. In Enduring the Freedom, Maloney presents a rare on-the-spot view from such important locations as Kabul, Bagram, and Kandahar. He describes the American-led intervention in Afghanistan and the conduct of the war through early 2003, then discusses the events of 2003 from the three locales in detail. Some critics contend that the war in Afghanistan is another Vietnam. Maloney rebuts that appraisal, pointing out that, as opposed to the vague language of the Vietnam era, American objectives were clearly stated for Afghanistan. Those objectives were to destroy al Qaeda's networks, training camps, resources, and communication systems to destroy any governmental entity providing support or sanctuary to al Qaeda and to undertake reconstruction efforts to ensure international terrorists can never again use the country as a base The first objective has more or less been achieved How to accomplish the last two is still widely debated and Maloney offers some insightful thoughts and opinions Finally he offers educated advice going forward in the hopeful completion of Operation Enduring Freedom

Shapes, Scenes and Strokes: Book Reviews 2015 Manuel Augusto Antão,2016-01-13 The experience of thinking about preparing or writing a text be it a book review or about an art exhibition cannot be limited solely to the artistic experience There must always be another kind of challenge I want that elusive thing that I found together with the encounter that I had with the object and the experience we lived together Every day when I wake up I don t think about writing but I wonder whether I ll be able to rise to the calling of that particular object a book a painting a play opera etc The characters in them are never marginal figures I know that they exist but I do not know them I do not confront myself with them or I only do so in highly stereotypical situations where they almost become invisible When I write about something this is my attempt at turning the invisible into the visible
