This personnel can now benefit from A Manual for the Performance Library, a guide for organizing and operating a library of music performance materials. Music for performance has different needs than music for study. It must be easy to read and understand, and it must be formatted so as not to impede the musician's efforts to interpret the notes into musical sound. This book outlines step by step the ways of acquiring, processing, cataloging, and preparing music for performance. While focusing primarily on music for large ensembles like orchestra and chorus, author Russ Girsberger also includes concepts that apply to wind, jazz, and chamber ensembles. The material is logically organized, detailing information on purchasing or renting music, cataloging and processing scores, numbering, marking, binding, and shelving parts, and preparing and distributing the music for rehearsal or performance. Additional duties such as describing necessary information on preparing concert programs and audition lists, and caring for and preserving the library's holdings are also covered. The manual concludes with a glossary, an annotated bibliography, and an appendix which features sample forms for cataloging and circulating the library's materials. Music Reference and Research Materials, Vincent Harris Duckles, Ida Reed, Michael A. Keller, 1997 This text has been the standard guide to source literature of music and contains critically annotated listings of over 3 500 key sources. This comprehensive guide to reference sources is organized into chapters by category of source. The text's organization introduces students to a vast array of sources to include Dictionaries and Encyclopedias, Histories and Chronologies, Sources of Systematic and Historical Musicology, Bibliographies of Music, Music Literature, and Music Business Reference Works on Individual Composers and Their Music, Catalogs of Libraries and Musical Instrument Collections, Discographies, Yearbooks, Directories, Electronic Resources. American Reference Books Annual, Bohdan S.
