

Fuel Reimbursement Policy

Purpose

This policy outlines the guidelines for providing fuel reimbursement to employees. The aim is to reimburse employees for the cost of fuel used for commuting to office and carrying out their duties while also providing a cushion against rising fuel prices in a fair and consistent manner. The company expects all eligible employees to adhere to this policy while making claims in order to ensure compliance with the given guidelines.

Scope

This policy applies to all permanent employees across the company except those as stated below;

- I. Management (CEO, COO)
- II. Admin staff

Eligibility

- Employees who have completed 12 or more months of service will be eligible up to 50 liters of fuel (Petrol)
- Employees who have successfully completed their probation and have their services confirmed but have completed less than 12 months service will be eligible up to 30 liters of fuel (Petrol)

Rates

The fuel allowance rate will be based on the current government-approved fuel rate. The rate is subject to change based on the rates that are announced by the government depending on prevailing prices in the international market and import costs.

Claims

Employees are required to submit the fuel receipts for claims via google form during the dates announced by HR at the end of each month. The receipts should be for same month and must include the date, fuel unit and price.

Approval

All fuel claims will be reviewed and approved by the HR. Approval will be granted based on the validity of the claims consistent with the guidelines set in this policy. Incomplete claims or claims submitted after the due date announced by HR will not be processed.
