City As Text:

The City as Power Alexander C. Diener, Joshua Hagen, 2018-09-18 This interdisciplinary book considers national identity through the lens of urban spaces By bringing together scholars from a range of disciplines The City as Power provides broad comparative perspectives about the critical importance of urban landscapes as forums for creating maintaining and contesting identity and belonging Rather than serving as passive backdrops urban spaces and places are active mediums for defining categories of inclusion and exclusion With an international scope and ready appeal to visual learners the book offers a compelling survey of historical and contemporary efforts to enact state ideals express counter narratives and negotiate global trends in cities The contributors show how successive regimes reshape cityscapes to mirror their respective socio political agendas perspectives on history and assumptions of power Yet they must do so within the legal ethnic religious social economic and cultural geographies inherited from previous regimes Exploring the rich diversity of urban space place and national identity the book compares core elements of identity projects in a range of political cultural and socioeconomic settings By focusing on the built form and urban settings for social movements protest and even organized violence this timely book demonstrates that cities are not simply lived in but also lived through

The Hieroglyphics of Space Neil Leach, 2005-06-29 Spatial images wrote the German cultural theorist Siegfried Kracauer are the dreams of society Wherever the hieroglyphics of any spatial image are deciphered there the basis of social reality presents itself But how exactly are these spatial images to be deciphered Hieroglyphics of Space addresses this question with a series of insightful essays on some of the great metropolitan centres of the world From political interpretations to gendered analyses from methods of mapping to filmic representations and from studies in consumption to economic surveys the volume offers a range of strategies for reading and experiencing the modern metropolis

Present Pasts Andreas Huyssen, 2003 This book analyzes the relation of public memory to history forgetting and selective memory in three late twentieth century cities that have confronted major social or political traumas Berlin Buenos Aires and New York

Future City Stephen Read, Jürgen Rosemann, Job van Eldijk, 2012-10-02 This text focuses on cities as the dominant form of human settlement for the future examining the transformation that is happening in urban conurbations worldwide today The last few decades have seen a rate of change and growth in cities that has never been seen before resulting in giant metropolises with over twenty million inhabitants This book tackles the causes of these changes and looks at how the planning and design of cities can shape the urban future

Beyond Description Ryan Bishop, John Phillips, Wei-Wei Yeo, 2004-08-02 Treated from a range of disciplinary perspectives this book addresses and challenges issues of space historicity architecture and textuality by focusing on Singapore's singular position in the region and as a global city
