Contemplation and Action in World Religions Yūsuf Ībish, Ileana Marculescu, 1978 Your Soul's Compass Joan Z. Borysenko, Ph.D., Gordon Dveirin, Ed.D., 2008-10-01 Drawing on spiritual wisdom from sacred texts across a variety of religious traditions this is an elegant simple and practical guide to get in touch with your higher self Deepak Chopra author of The Seven Spiritual Laws of Success Why am I here What does a life worth living look like What is the higher intelligence trying to express through me In this time of global change and uncertainty of spiritual indirection Americans are asking these age old questions with renewed curiosity There s a thirst for meaning and purpose a dawning realization that happiness isn t a commodity that can be bought with a gold card Fulfillment and joy arise naturally from creative and compassionate action from the understanding that all life is interconnected and guided by a higher intelligence Our personal choices make a difference and when they are spiritually inspired even the smallest action serves a larger whole Sacred texts ranging from the Torah to the New Testament the Tao Te Ching to the Buddhist scriptures the Vedantas to the Koran speak of making life enhancing choices where a force greater than the individual flows through us and informs our thoughts and actions In this book we ll focus on the three classic aspects of living such a spiritually guided life 1 alignment maintaining a direct and personal connection to the Source of our Being 2 discernment distinguishing the movement of Spirit in our lives from our own wants fears and social conditioning and 3 action making our best most inspired contribution to the evolution of life

Just This Richard Rohr, 2018-06-21 Just This is a collection of brief and evocative meditations and practices It invites us to cultivate the gift of waking up to the beauty of reality in all its glorious ordinariness With his signature blend of contemplation theology and pastoral sensitivity Fr Richard Rohr creates a spaciousness for the soul to grow into a kind of seeing one that goes far beyond merely looking to recognizing and thus appreciating This is the heart of contemplation the centerpiece of any inner dialogue that frees us from the traps of our perceptions and preoccupations The contemplative mind does not tell us what to see it teaches us how to see what we behold Praise for Richard Rohr s The Divine Dance A beautiful choreography for a life well lived Bono U2

Traditional Modes of Contemplation and Action Yūsuf Ībish, Peter Lamborn Wilson, 1977 Contemplatives in Action William A Barry, S.J., Robert J Doherty, 2014-05-14 Examines the nature of Jesuit spirituality which is a spirituality of life giving and creative tensions Contemplation and Action, 1996 This thesis examines from the writings of Ignatius Loyola founder of the Society of Jesus Ignatius synthesis of contemplation and action The main point of the thesis argues that although Ignatius followed the Western monastic tradition of contemplation nevertheless he innovated it by radically orienting contemplation to action making action virtually equal to or even more acceptable than contemplation He replaced the recitation of the divine office in choir considered the essential expression of contemplation with the dynamic formula finding God in all things Through a study of the historical and social environment in which Ignatius lived and of his main writings this thesis concludes that Ignatius was influenced in his synthesis by both the context of his times and the monastic tradition of contemplation It is also argued that although there is continuity between Ignatian contemplation and the monastic tradition there is a discontinuity as well Like the monastic tradition Ignatian contemplation had a Christocentric focus This Christocentric focus however was set within a highly Trinitarian backdrop Like the monastic tradition Ignatian contemplation was characterized by the use of the imaginative senses and motivated by the love of God but unlike the monastic tradition which made contemplation pre eminent Ignatian contemplation was oriented to apostolic service or action so that one finds God in all things Contemplation in action Joseph F. Cornwell,1957

Heaven Opens Matthew Lewis Sutton,2014-02-01 Adrienne von Speyr was one of the most important mystical theologians of the last century However her work has been eclipsed in many ways by her personal connection to Hans Urs von Balthasar Heaven Opens provides one of the first comprehensive accounts of von Speyr s theology Matthew Lewis Sutton argues that the eternal immanent relations of the Triune God ground the mystical theological vision of von Speyr Here von Speyr s work is for the first time given an independent hearing expositing its content features and connections and assessing its contribution to contemporary Catholic theology

John, Volume 2 Adrienne von Speyr,1993-01-01 The mystic von Speyr continues her reflections on the Gospel of John concentrating here on the discourses of Jesus in chapters 6 12 The various other events included by Saint John in these chapters are seen primarily by him as the occasion for new confrontations between Jesus and his disputants. These reflections present the moment in which the limited self-satisfied standpoint of Christ's hearers must let itself be burst open into the unlimited loving standpoint of the Lord. Some of the controversial discourses in this section of John's Gospel which von Speyr comments on include The Multiplication of the Loaves, The Bread of Life, The Adulteress, The Man Born Blind, The Raising of Lazarus, The Good Shepherd, and The Entry into Jerusalem. The combination of the Scripture verses and von Speyr's moving meditations provide rich nourishment for prayer and spiritual reading. This series is particularly important because the spirituality of Saint John the Apostle of Divine Love was the central source of von Speyr's own spiritual life.
