Anna Halprin:

Anna Halprin Janice Ross, 2007-02-12 Publisher description Anna Halprin Libby Worth, Helen Poyner, 2018-06-13 Anna Halprin traces the life's work of this radical dance maker documenting her early career as a modern dancer in the 1940s through to the development of her groundbreaking approach to dance as an accessible and life-enhancing art form. Now revised and reissued, this book sketches the evolution of the San Francisco Dancers Workshop, exploring Halprin's connections with the avant-garde theatre, music, visual art, and architecture of the 1950s and 60s. It offers a detailed analysis of Halprin's work from this period, providing an important historical guide to a time when dance was first explored beyond the confines of the theatre and considered as a healing art for individuals and communities. As a first step towards critical understanding and an initial exploration before going on to further primary research, Routledge Performance Practitioners offer unbeatable value for today's student.

Anna Halprin Ursula Schorn, Ronit Land, Gabriele Wittmann, 2014-09-21 This book considers the creative work and therapeutic and pedagogical approach of Anna Halprin, a dancer, choreographer, and early pioneer in the expressive arts healing movement. It looks at her Life Art Process and the wider impact of her work across the fields of art, education, therapy, and politics.

Experimental Theatre James Roose-Evans, 1989 It is a pleasure to read. Well-written, free of cant, impressively wide-ranging. The book is really an introduction to the avant-garde. John Lahr Choreography, Visual Art and Experimental Composition 1950s-1970s Erin Brannigan, 2022-03-29 Winner of the 2023 Selma Jeanne Cohen Prize in Dance Aesthetics, The American Society for Aesthetics. This book traces the history of engagements between dance and the visual arts in the mid-twentieth century and provides a backdrop for the emerging field of contemporary intermedial art practice. Exploring the disciplinary identity of dance in dialogue with the visual arts, this book unpacks how compositional methods that were dance-based informed visual art contexts. The book provokes fresh consideration of the entangled relationship between and historiographic significance of visual arts and dance by exploring movements in history that dance has been traditionally mapped to: Neo-Avant-Garde, Neo-Dada, Conceptual art, Postmodernism, and Performance Art, and the specific practices and innovations from key people in the field like John Cage, Anna Halprin, and Robert Rauschenberg. This book also employs a series of historical and critical case studies which show how compositional approaches from dance—breath, weight, tone, energy—inform the emergence of the intermedial. Ultimately, this book shows how dance and choreography have played an important role in shaping visual arts culture and enables the re-imagining of current art practices through the use of choreographic tools. This unique and timely offering is important reading for those studying and researching in visual and fine arts, performance history, and theory, dance practice, and dance studies, as well as those working within the fields of dance and visual art. A Snakes' Tail Full of Ants John Lane,1996 There is evidence of a sea change in Western consciousness over the last three or four decades of the 20th century which implies a fundamental rejection of the arts of humanism the tradition of art for the elite art cut off from society from nature and from the sacred added as Eric Gill once said like a sauce to otherwise unpalatable fish cannot serve the needs of our future society John Lane both celebrates the power and challenges the defect of this 500 year old tradition invariably claimed to be the finest that has ever existed He questions whether the institution of the self directed professional artist was a great step forward in the story of self realization or whether it was on the contrary a dehumanising aberration in the history of humankind Challenging and illuminating this book looks forward to a time of revitalized aesthetic activity when creative expression is not lofty professionalized and unapproachable but closely interwoven with the activities of daily life
