Mrs. Musterman, Milliner of Main Street Elizabeth Leah Reed,2021-02-28 Who Was Mrs Musterman We often think of women who came of age in 1900 as submissive flowers waiting to be plucked but not Lillian Johnson No this remarkable woman left her small Virginia town and headed to the big city Baltimore to become a milliner She took her creativity to Annapolis Maryland where she created Gainsborough hats married and became Mrs Musterman When her third child was born her husband fell ill and suddenly she became the sole breadwinner of the family Then her employer died What was she to do How would she survive If she can possibly succeed she must have her own shop and years of crowning the heads of the women of Annapolis She once said Nothing is impossible if you really want to do it

Chesapeake Sailing Craft Robert H. Burgess,2005 Thirty years have passed since the 1975 publication of Robert H Burgess s classic Chesapeake Sailing Craft and while the original edition of this book has been out of print for many years this new expanded edition brings alive the author s photographs and recollections for a new generation of readers Within these pages Burgess presents a rare photographic record of the period 1925 1975 depicting the bay sailing craft from log canoe to four masted schooner Robert H Burgess s photographs show the vessels in all phases of their activities on these waters including loading and unloading cargoes under sail and in port in shipyards details of rigging fittings and decks interior views as powerboats and abandoned hulks No one has so thoroughly photographed the Chesapeake sailing vessels as Burgess He applied himself to the task as though he were getting paid for it But it was purely through a feeling for the history of the bay and its craft an awareness that a change was taking place that he pursued his subject so persistently If he had not undertaken this labor of love most of the sailing vessels in this volume would have passed on with no photographic record of their ever having existed This edition showcases the original text photos and captions and adds 150 new photos with captions by William A Fox The result is Chesapeake Sailing Craft Recollections of Robert H Burgess a new and expanded edition of the original volume for bay enthusiasts to enjoy As in the original edition all the photos in this book were taken by Robert Burgess They appear as he saw them through the viewfinder of his camera and as he printed them in the darkroom uncropped and unretouched Maryland Libraries ,1962
