Breaking Blue Timothy Egan, 2011-11-16 No one who enjoys mystery can fail to savor this study of a classic case of detection TONY HILLERMAN On the night of September 14 1935 George Conniff a town marshal in Pend Oreille County in the state of Washington was shot to death A lawman had been killed yet there seemed to be no uproar no major investigation No suspect was brought to trial More than fifty years later the sheriff of Pend Oreille County Tony Bamonte in pursuit of both justice and a master s degree in history dug into the files of the Conniff case by then the oldest open murder case in the United States Gradually what started out as an intellectual exercise became an obsession as Bamonte asked questions that unfolded layer upon layer of unsavory detail In Timothy Egan s vivid account which reads like a thriller we follow Bamonte as his investigation plunges him back in time to the Depression era of rampant black market crime and police corruption We see how the suppressed reports he uncovers and the ambiguous answers his questions evoke lead him to the murder weapon missing for half a century and then to the man an ex cop he is convinced was the murderer Bamonte himself a logger s son and a Vietnam veteran had joined the Spokane police force in the late 1960s a time when increasingly enlightened and educated police departments across the country were shaking off the dirty cop stigma But as he got closer to actually solving the crime questioning elderly retired members of the force he found himself more and more isolated shut out by tight lipped hostility and made dramatically aware of the fraternal sin he had committed breaking the blue code Breaking Blue is a gripping story of cop against cop But it also describes a collision between two generations of lawmen and two very different moments in our nation s history

Breaking Blue Sean "Sticks" Larkin, 2021-06-15 Breaking Blue shares the true but often hard to believe stories of cops falsely accused and subsequently cleared of serious crimes or wrongdoing Sgt Sean Sticks Larkin of the Tulsa Oklahoma Police Department is one of them and in this deeply personal book he reflects on his own story as well as other officers who have experienced the dark side of being wrongly accused or convicted Sgt Larkin reminds us at a time when false convictions are being discussed worldwide that the men and women of law enforcement are just like everyone else human beings who can make mistakes but who can pay a personal price for those errors as well With police conduct being discussed nationwide Breaking Blue is a poignant and timely reminder that leaping to judgments based on anything from one s race or gender to one s profession can hurt everyone in the end If justice works for one person Sgt Larkin writes it should work for everyone equally That certainly includes the police officers who work honestly and hard to keep us all safe Sgt Sean Sticks Larkin currently serves as supervisor of the Tulsa Police Department s Crime Gun Unit For three years he was a co host of A E s hit TV show Live PD and hosted PD Cam a show that gave viewers a POV look into law enforcement s dangerous and dramatic interactions Law Crime is the leading media company dedicated to live trial coverage and legal and true crime stories in film TV and the written word Book jacket Summary of Timothy Egan's Breaking Blue Everest Media, 2022-05-04T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1

The former police chief Bill Parsons had a first rate pension and medical plan but it seemed to amount to nothing more than an open ticket to see more urologists and respiratory therapists He could not take a breath of cool air 2 Chief Bill Parsons who had kept a secret his entire career was now so lonely that it sometimes felt like physical pain He longed for company but hardly any of his former colleagues came around to visit him 3 The man who had stirred Parsons lighting fires under the dead and the near dead lived alone in a decaying three story brick building about seventy five miles north of Spokane He had spent the last year thinking about September 1935 4 In 1935 a crime occurred in the wilderness county of Spokane that became known as the crime of the century But little was known about it and Bamonte was looking for people who could shed light on it
