Anthropological Perspectives on Local Development Simone Abram, Jacqueline Waldren, 2003-12-16 This collection examines the conflicts and realities of development at a local empirical level It provides a series of case studies which illuminate the attitudes and actions of all of those involved in local development schemes The material is drawn from Southern and Eastern Europe Asia and Africa All the contributors use rigorous anthropological methods of analysis to shed light on the place of feelings of personal sentiment and identity in reactions to planned development schemes In a world where direct action and public protest are routine responses to local development schemes they show how protesters developers and politicians often hold very different fundamental views about the environment society government and development which go beyond partisan economic and political interests Anthropological Perspectives on Local Development , Printbegr nsninger Der kan printes kapitelvis Community Development and Local Economy Erin O'Rourke, 1989 Contesting the Foreshore Jeremy Boissevain, Tom Selwyn, 2004 This collection of essays examines social political and economic relations in primarily European coastal locations through the lens of tourism The contributors explore the intersecting interests of fishing tourism and development and the conflict among local communities and market forces all of which are infused with the symbolism of the sea as a place of mystery and danger From the tensions between Cornish villagers and city visitors to the explosion of resort development in Gran Canaria the authors consider the relationship between local residents businesses and tourist newcomers as they vie for status influence and ultimately for space ICTs for Global Development and Sustainability: Practice and Applications Steyn, Jacques, Van Belle, Jean-Paul, Mansilla, Eduardo Villanueva, 2010-09-30 This book unites the theoretical underpinnings and scientific methodology of an approach of deploying ICT in marginalized communities to bridge the so called digital divide This book contains case studies of Asia Africa Latin America and the Caribbean that demonstrate which approaches work and which do not in deploying public access to information sources Provided by publisher China's Disappearing Countryside Yongjun Zhao, 2016-05-23 While China s hybrid rural land tenure system has contributed to agricultural development it is interwoven with rising farmland loss and social conflicts This book examines the linkages between land tenure development and governance in the context of China s development transformation Drawing on empirical studies it advocates the exploration of innovative land tenure systems that address the wider determinants institutions power politics and social development It argues that a land tenure system can only be sustainable when it is compatible with the overall biophysical social political and economic conditions This new institutional lens into the conditions and dynamics of land tenure systems marks a paradigm shift away from those focusing on the narrow meaning of land rights and tenure security strengthening as these approaches can paradoxically contribute to weaker land and resource governance Contributing to an enhanced understanding of the challenges China faces in agricultural development and natural resource governance and to the international debates on land tenure reform this book will be of interest to researchers practitioners policy makers and students in development studies anthropology sociology political sciences law geography economics public administration and other relevant disciplines The lessons learnt from China also shed light on its global engagement on sustainable development and governance issues Tourism: Tourism, development and sustainability Stephen Williams,2004 This collection of key articles from the most influential journals and books in the field examines what social scientists mean by the term tourism and what it means to be a tourist Carefully selected and introduced by the editor this material charts the sociological changes that have occurred in tourism and the change from the upper class grand tours of the late nineteenth century to the mass tourism of the present day The collection also assesses the economic impacts of tourism on local economies environmental considerations and whether the growth of tourism is sustainable in a post September 11th world Tourism Critical Concepts in the Social Sciences is an accessible and comprehensive resource designed for academics and scholars researching in tourism globalization and human geography

Intersecting Health, Livability, and Human Behavior in Urban Environments González-Lezcano, Roberto Alonso,2023-05-03 The promotion of sustainable urban development and livable cities in the past three decades has effectively merged the themes of urban health urban sustainability and urban livability into an integrated research field As more people are predicted to live in a relatively confined space the balance between the physical built environment social environment and urban dwellers becomes more delicate Urban systems have evolved to be more complex than ever during this process While complex systems often offer relative stability delicate balance requires carefully designed plans and management to avoid collapse It is hence of great interest and importance to know what future sustainable and livable cities look like Intersecting Health Livability and Human Behavior in Urban Environments considers how to improve the quality of the environment and healthy living in contemporary and future urban environments Covering key topics such as environmental health smart cities and urban health this premier reference source is ideal for policymakers government officials scholars researchers academicians instructors and students Anthropologica ,2002 Anthropos ,2001

questionnaires and surveys of community members The chapters cover an interdisciplinary understanding of peatland destruction and broadly offer insights into environmental governance While presenting combined studies of established fieldwork methodologies and contemporary technology such as drones and geospatial information the book also explores the potential of long distance research with rural communities through online facilitation which was brought about by Covid 19 but that may have longterm implications Readers will gain a comprehensive understanding of the complexities surrounding peatland conservation and restoration and recognize the significance of locally inclusive approaches that use contemporary but accessible technologies to sustainably govern the globally important resource of peatland That approach would be useful for other environmentally fragile but important regions and give some ideas to achieve the United Nations SDGs for 1 No Poverty 5 Gender Equality 13 Climate Action 15 Life of Land

Directory of Published Proceedings ,2004 Third World Planning Review ,1999 Representation, Identity, and Multiculturalism in Sarawak Zawawi Ibrahim,2008

The characteristics and processes of identity formation and representation have been crucial preoccupations in social science and historical studies of Sarawak and the wider Borneo We have examined Brooke and colonial policies on ethnicity and political party formation state federal relations nationalism and ethnicity in the post independence period We have considered inter ethnic relations and the encounters between minorities and the state in the context of development and socio economic change However Professor Zawawi s book demonstrates that in spite of this level of interest and activity there is still much to do We have tended to concentrate on particular groups at the expense of others Detailed studies of the Bidayus and Malays for example are few We still know very little about ethnic relations in urban settings and the politics of identity in relation to tourism development We need to explore much more thoroughly the interrelationships between ethnicity and other principles of social organisation including class gender and patron clientage

Community Building in the Twenty-first Century Stanley Hyland (Ph. D.),2005

Community has long been a critical concept for social scientists and never more so amid the growing economic inequity natural and human disasters and warfare of the opening years of the twenty first century In this volume leading scholar activists develop a conceptual framework for both the theory and practice of building communities Rethinking the very concept in light of technological change and globalization they examine local responses to worldwide trends study the ways that communities generate and use resources and evaluate existing theories and approaches to community building to determine the best strategies for fostering community strength and vitality Their work with groups ranging from refugees religious charities and poor urban neighborhoods to tribal peoples international corporations and public health agencies demonstrates that local communities contain the seeds for a more desirable future and suggests how we may encourage those seeds to grow
