Carte Blanche:

Carte Blanche Jessica Pitchford, 2013-09-01 Carte Blanche burst onto the scene in 1988 as a genre never before seen on South African television a trail blazer a blend of sociological awareness sophistication and audacity When pay channel M Net came up with this different and daring weekly eye opener that pushed the envelope it brought promise of freedom and creativity and ended a period in South Africa s history in which television news and current affairs were limited to the state broadcaster Twenty five years on the familiar Carte Blanche melody has become an institution announcing the end of the weekend and the start of an hour that resists the mundane and stimulates debate What s become a Sunday night ritual began in a make shift studio with a small team of firebrands led by an arrogant fearless talent a showman with scant respect for the conventions of the time Bill Faure was the most dynamic director of his day a visionary who shared his passionate love of television with the world He set the stage for what has become South Africa s longest running investigative current affairs show and the most valuable real estate in broadcasting Faure passed the baton on to an extraordinary generation of journalists that created a vault of diverse memories brought into homes across the country and into Africa stories of delight and daring cheek and chutzpah heartbreak and heroism of the weird and whacky It s said that his spirit still guides Carte Blanche into shaking complacency and bringing to the screen a social and ecological conscience be it the cruelty meted out to the Tuli elephants the selfless courage of Sally Trench or blast off with Mark Shuttleworth It s enabled us all to chase car thieves across our borders catch out rogue mechanics and find out what security guards and plumbers do and don t do in our homes It s brought to our screens a host of unforgettable characters from the transsexuals of Beaufort West to the shady directors of Aurora Carte Blanche The Stories behind the Stories dips into an era of quality journalism through the eyes of the producers and presenters who have so effectively measured the national mood and recognised defining moments It s a show that has become part of our landscape and promises to survive another quarter of a century The Stanford
