Castle Murder:

New Castle's Kadunce Murders: Mystery and the Devil in Northwest Pennsylvania Dale Richard Perelman, 2019
Author Dale Richard Perelman tells the tragic story of the 1978 murders and the mystery surrounding them. In the summer of 1978 a mother and her four year old were stabbed to death in the quiet town of New Castle. Police suspected the husband Lou Kadunce but were unable to find either a weapon or a motive. Sitting in a Lawrence County jail in 1981 convicted serial killer Michael Atkinson accused Frank Costal a carny petty thief and Satanist of having an affair with the Kadunce husband and participating in the murder. A series of intense trials ensued as Costal was convicted of the homicides and a jury found the husband not guilty. Questions surrounding the case gripped the region and grabbed headlines in the Pittsburgh Press.

Legal Executions in Delaware, the District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia Daniel Allen Hearn, 2015-07-13
In the century following the Civil War Delaware the District of Columbia Maryland Virginia and West Virginia legally executed hundreds of men and women convicted of capital crimes. Based on exhaustive research of court records newspapers death certificates and even gravestones this book provides the essential details of each case. Arranged by state entries for each execution are listed in chronological order giving the name race and age of the prisoner and a description of the crime of which he or she was convicted. The motive if known the date and place of the execution and relevant sources are also included. Appendices provide preliminary lists of executions in these states before 1866 including some cases dating back to the 17th century. A significant number of hitherto undiscovered executions further reveals that America's experience with capital punishment is more extensive than previously known.
