His Holiness the Dalai Lama,2011-01-01 About one thousand years ago the great Indian pandit and yogi Dipamkara Shrijnana Atisha was invited to Tibet to re establish the Buddhadharma which had been suppressed and corrupted for almost two centuries One of Atisha s main accomplishments in Tibet was his writing of the seminal text A Lamp for the Path to Enlightenment in which he extracted the essence of all 84 000 teachings of the Buddha and organized them into a clear step like arrangement that makes it easy for any individual practitioner to understand and practice the Dharma This genre of teachings is known as lam rim or steps of the path and forms an essential part of every school of Tibetan Buddhism In this book His Holiness the Dalai Lama gives a commentary to not only Atisha s revolutionary work but also to Lines of Experience a short text written by Lama Tsongkhapa who was perhaps the greatest of all Tibetan lam rim authors In bringing together Atisha Lama Tsongkhapa and His Holiness the Dalai Lama this book offers readers one of the clearest and most authoritative expositions of the Tibetan Buddhist path ever published and it is recommended for those at the beginning of the path the middle and the end This book is made possible by kind supporters of the Archive who like you appreciate how we make these teachings freely available in so many ways including in our website for instant reading listening or downloading and as printed and electronic books Our website offers immediate access to thousands of pages of teachings and hundreds of audio recordings by some of the greatest lamas of our time Our photo gallery and our ever popular books are also freely accessible there Please help us increase our efforts to spread the Dharma for the happiness and benefit of all beings You can find out more about becoming a supporter of the Archive and see all we have to offer by visiting our website Thank you so much and please enjoy this book

The Path of Light Śāntideva,1909 Pointing Out the Great Way Daniel P. Brown,2006-10-10

Many books have been published in recent years on the topic of mahamudra or meditation on the fundamentally clear nature of the mind This book is different in the systematic way it draws from a variety of source texts in order to construct a complete graded path of practice informed by an understanding of the particular obstacles faced by meditators in the West Dan Brown is a clinical psychotherapist who has also spent much time evaluating the experiences of meditators on longterm retreats He knows the Tibetan literature on mahamudra meditation and has over thirty years of both personal meditation experience and observation of the experiences of others He co wrote with Ken Wilber and Jack Engler the book Transformations in Consciousness and he teaches an annual seminar on mahamudra meditation at the Esalen Institute Pointing Out the Great Way is a spiritual manual that describes the Tibetan Buddhist meditation known as mahamudra from the perspective of the gradual path The gradual path is a progressive process of training that is often contrasted to sudden realization As such this book contains a step by step description of the ways to practice precise descriptions of the various stages and their intended realizations and the typical problems that arise along with their remedies Simply put mahamudra meditation involves penetrative focus free of conceptual elaboration upon the very nature of conscious awareness A unique feature of this book is its integrative approach to the stages of mahamudra meditation A number of works on Buddhist meditation stages in general and mahamudra meditation in particular are already available in English yet none single text or commentary on the stages of mahamudra meditation captures the inner experience of these stages in sufficient detail to convey its richness This book represents the needed alternative by integrating material from a variety of root texts practical manuals
