Springhall,2008-04-14 A thorough survey of the origins and development of the major distinct American commercial entertainments that emerged between over the course of the 19th century and into the 20th including P T Barnum_s American Museum freak show and circus as well as blackface minstrelry Buffalo Bill_s Wild West Show and vaudeville The Billboard ,1927 The Critic Jeannette Leonard Gilder,Joseph Benson Gilder,1885 Shakespeare's House Richard Schoch,2023-11-16 A page turning story Times Literary Supplement Eye opening Michael Billington A detailed and highly compelling story that involves so much more than bricks and mortar The Stratford Herald In the wide realm of Shakespeare worship the house in Stratford upon Avon where William Shakespeare was born in 1564 known colloquially as the Birthplace remains the chief shrine It s not as romantic as Anne Hathaway s thatched cottage it s not where he wrote any of his plays and there s nothing inside the house that once belonged to Shakespeare himself So why for centuries have people kept turning up on the doorstep Richard Schoch answers that question by examining the history of the Birthplace and by exploring how its changing fortunes over four centuries perfectly mirror the changing attitudes toward Shakespeare himself Based on original research in the archives of the Shakespeare Birthplace Trust in Stratford upon Avon and the Folger Shakespeare Library in Washington DC and featuring two black and white illustrated plate sections which draw on the wide array of material available at the Folger Shakespeare Library and the Victoria and Albert Museum this book traces the history of Shakespeare s birthplace over four centuries Beginning in the 1560s when Shakespeare was born there it ends in the 1890s when the house was rescued from private purchase and turned into the Shakespeare monument that it remains today The Musical Times & Singing-class Circular ,1920 The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1888

The Publishers Weekly ,1922 The Feejee Mermaid and Other Essays in Natural and Unnatural History Jan Bondeson,2014-07-02 In his new collection of essays Jan Bondeson tells ten fascinating stories of myths and hoaxes beliefs and Ripley like facts concerning the animal kingdom Throughout he recounts and in some instances solves mysteries of the natural world which have puzzled scientists for centuries Heavily illustrated with photographs and drawings the book presents astounding tales from across the rich folklore of animals a learned pig more admired than Sir Isaac Newton by the English public an elephant that Lord Byron wanted to employ as his butler a dancing horse whose skills in mathematics were praised by William Shakespeare and of course the extraordinary creature known as the Feejee Mermaid This object became the foremost curiosity of London in the 1820s and later in the century toured the United States under the management of P T

Barnum Bearing a striking resemblance to a wizened and misshapen monkey with a fishtail the mermaid was nonetheless proclaimed a genuine specimen by experts Bondeson explores other zoological wonders toads living for centuries encased in solid stone little fishes raining down from the sky and barnacle geese growing from trees until ready to fly In two of his most fascinating chapters he uncovers the origins of the basilisk considered one of the most inexplicable mythical monsters and of the Vegetable Lamb of Tartary With the head and body of a rooster and the tail of a snake the basilisk was said to be able to kill a person with its gaze Bondeson demonstrates that belief in this fabulous creature resulted from misinterpretations of rare events in natural history The vegetable lamb a mainstay of museums in the seventeenth century was allegedly half plant half animal it had the shape of a little lamb but grew from a stem After examining two vegetable lambs still in London today Bondeson offers a new theory to explain this old fallacy
