Art in the Hellenistic Age Jerome Jordan Pollitt, 1986-06-12 This 1986 book is an interpretative history of Greek art during the Hellenistic period

History of Art and Architecture Joann Lacey, 2021-01-23 This is a survey of the history of art and architecture of Western civilizations The textbook extends from the age of the Renaissance until the end of the 20th Century The textbook includes illustrations graphs and reconstruction images curated from Creative Commons material The textbook includes original text not protected intellectual property

The Oxford History of Western Art Martin Kemp, 2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students A History of Sculpture George Henry Chase, Chandler Rathfon Post, 1924

Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2010 Gold, Silver, and Bronze Jennifer Montagu, 1996 Roman baroque sculpture is usually thought of in terms of large scale statues in marble and bronze tombs or portrait busts Smaller bronze statuettes are overlooked and the extensive production of sculptural silver much of which is now lost but can be studied from drawings is omitted from the histories of art In these lectures Jennifer Montagu enriches our understanding of the sculpture of the period by investigating these works in metal the bronzes that adorn the great tabernacles which are a prominent feature of Roman churches the often gilded silver both secular and ecclesiastical and elaborately embossed display dishes She also looks at the production of medals an essential aspect of metal sculpture that is usually confined to specialist literature The book concentrates on selected pieces by such master sculptors as Bernini and leading metal workers such as Giovanni Giardini Making extensive use of archival documents and drawings Montagu examines the often tortuous relationship between the patrons and the artists and elucidates the relationship between those who provided the drawings or models and the craftsmen who executed the finished sculptures In this way she provides insights into the procedures of the workshops and at the same time opens our eyes to a new and fascinating area of sculpture

Clement X of about 1676 one of his last completed works Bernini's portrait busts were masterpieces of technical virtuosity at the same time they revealed a new interest in psychological depth Bernini's ability to capture the essential character of his subjects was unmatched and had a profound influence on other leading sculptors of his day such as Alessandro Algardi Giuliano Finelli and Francesco Mochi Bernini and the Birth of Baroque Portrait Sculpture is a groundbreaking study that features drawings and paintings by Bernini and his contemporaries Together they demonstrate not only the range skill and acuity of these masters of Baroque portraiture but also the interrelationship of the arts in seventeenth century Rome
