Fiedler,2024-01-23 Over the last decades an ever growing gap has developed between traditional marriage and the officiation of it as a church wedding because of the expenses involved in a proper church wedding These are not demanded by the churches but by common social expectations Irrespective of whether a church sees marriage as a sacrament or as a civil order much emphasis is put on it by the churches and by society Many churches exclude those not properly married from the sacraments But why should the churches put so much emphasis on their church weddings a ritual not found in the New Testament and which came into the church only almost a thousand years later The Christian Wedding Mark Thomas,2007-02 THE CHRISTIAN WEDDING EVERYTHING YOU ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW presents the wedding ceremony as a complete teaching of the Christian spiritual life The author has attempted to give a clear understanding of the symbols of the ritual in a way that brings to it fresh and new appreciation The book presents the key elements of the ceremony in their tradition order It examines the procession the seating of the bride and grooms family and the statements of the participations It provides the meanings of the flower girl ring bearer the bride and groom the best man maid and matrons of honor the groomsmen and bridesmaids the priest and rings It is perhaps the first attempt to show how the marriage ceremony incorporates all the aspects of traditional Christian ideals It will be worth reading by priests and pastors Christian men and women getting married or by those who attend the weddings of their family and friends Christian Marriage Joel Foote Bingham,1900 The Christian Marriage Ceremony Joel Foote Bingham,1871 Christianity Alister E.
