employed through these subsequent sections The first section explores the sources of Christian ethics including each of the four fonts scripture tradition experience and reason The second section examines fundamental or basic elements of Christian ethics and covers different methods approaches and voices in doing Christian ethics such as natural law virtue ethics conscience responsibility narrative worship and engagement with other religions The third section addresses current moral issues in politics medicine economics ecology criminal justice and other related spheres from the perspective of Christian ethics including war genetics neuroethics end of life decisions marriage family work sexuality nonhuman animals migration aging policing incarceration capital punishment and more

From Cloister To Commons Richard Devine, Joseph A. Favazza, F. Michael McLain, 2023-07-03 This volume like its series companions goes beyond simple how to to discuss the implementation of service learning within religious studies and what that discipline contributes to the pedagogy of service learning The volume contains both theoretical and pedagogical essays by scholar teachers in religious studies education plus a resource guide

Christian Ethics and Contemporary Moral Problems Michael C. Banner, 1999-09-28 This book addresses such key ethical issues as euthanasia the environment biotechnology abortion the family sexual ethics and the distribution of health care resources Michael Banner argues that the task of Christian ethics is to understand the world and humankind in the light of the credal affirmations of the Christian faith and to explicate this understanding in its significance for human action through a critical engagement with the concerns claims and problems of other ethics He illustrates both the distinctiveness of Christian convictions in relation to the above issues and also the critical dialogue with practices based on other convictions which this sense of distinctiveness motivates but does not prevent The book's importance lies in its attempt to show the crucial difference which Christian belief makes to an understanding of these issues whilst at the same time demonstrating some of the weaknesses and confusions of certain popular approaches to them
