Christian Spirituality High Middle And Reformation:

Christian Spirituality Jill Raitt, Bernard McGinn, John Meyendorff, 1987 Christian Spirituality Jill Raitt, Bernard McGinn, John Meyendorff, 1987 From the World Spirituality series this is a broad ranging illustrated scholarly treatment of core topics in Christian spirituality focused on the Reformation and pre Reformation periods Christian Spirituality, 1985 Christian spirituality. 2. High middle ages and reformation Bernard McGinn, 1988 Christian Spirituality Jill Raitt, 1987 The Blackwell Companion to Christian Spirituality Arthur Holder, 2011-04-27 The Blackwell Companion to Christian Spirituality is a comprehensive single volume introduction to Christian spirituality and represents the most significant recent developments in the field Offers a thoroughly interdisciplinary broadly ecumenical and representative overview of the most significant recent developments in the field Comprises essays combining rigorous academic scholarship with accessible and elegant writing Reflects an understanding of the field as the study of the lived experience of Christian faith and discipleship Provides material on biblical historical and theological foundations along with treatment of contemporary issues Spirituality and Reform Calvin Lane, 2018-08-15 In colorful detail Calvin Lane explores the dynamic intersection between reform movements and everyday Christian practice from ca 1000 to ca 1800 Lowering the artificial boundaries between the Middle Ages the Reformation and the Enlightenment Lane brings to life a series of reform programs each of which developed new sensibilities about what it meant to live the Christian life Along this tour Lane discusses music art pilgrimage relics architecture heresy martyrdom patterns of personal prayer changes in marriage and family life connections between church bodies and governing authorities and certainly worship The thread that he finds running from the Benedictine revival in the eleventh century to the pietistic movements of the eighteenth is a passionate desire to return to a primitive era of Christianity a time of imagined apostolic authenticity even purity In accessible language he introduces readers to Cistercians and Calvinists Franciscans and Jesuits Lutherans and Jansenists Moravians and Methodists to name but a few of the many reform movements studied in this book Although Lane highlights their diversity he argues that each movement rooted its characteristic practice their spirituality in an imaginative recovery of the apostolic life

Poverty in the Theology of John Calvin Bonnie L. Pattison, 2006-11-01 It is the thesis of this study that in Calvin's theology poverty and affliction not splendor and glory mark and manifest the kingdom of God on earth Poverty makes the kingdom visible to the eyes and therefore recognizable as divine Poverty acts to reveal or disclose that which is spiritual or that which is of God in the Christian faith This does not mean that Calvin sees the condition of physical poverty as revelatory in and of itself Rather poverty and affliction function as agents of divine revelation They are a condition or a chosen instrument God uses to disclose to humanity the nature of true spirituality godliness and poverty of spirit How this is demonstrated in Calvin's thought depends upon the specific doctrine under examination This study explores three particular areas in Calvin's theology where his theological understanding of spiritual poverty and physical poverty or affliction intersect his Christology his doctrine of the Christian life and his ecclesiology Buddhism and Christianity in Dialogue Perry Schmidt-Leukel,2005 This book is written for a general as well as a more specialist readership On the one hand it introduces basic topics of Buddhist Christian dialogue on the other hand it opens up new ground particularly insofar as the Buddhist and the Christian contributors all write comparatively Faith Formation and Popular Religion Anita De Luna,2002 This book uses political religious and cultural history to examine catechesis Sister de Luna establishes that religiosidad popular the core theme for Hispanic theology is Christian and Catholic and traces its elements in Church catechisms of the sixteenth through the twentieth centuries She goes on to examine the relationship between theology of beauty catechesis and spirituality establishing that the three disciplines were integral to faith formation in the early church but were separated through the centuries An in depth analysis of six selected catechisms reveals that popular religion as a combination of faith and culture was evident at the beginning of Hispanic Catholicism in the sixteenth century The investigation notes the gradual elimination and eventual replacement of the cultural aspects in the catechetical texts in the nineteenth century The author concludes that the reunification of the cultural spiritual symbols with the presentation of doctrine could revitalize catechesis and bring Christian evangelization to a renewed effectiveness The Ministry of John Knox Richard G. Kyle,2002 Presents a vigorous well documented account of important aspects of John Knox s character and mission topics often passed over or discounted in the standard histories The Merging of Theology and Spirituality Larry S. McDonald,2006-07-29 While acknowledging the inherent tension between evangelicals who emphasize theological propositions and those who emphasize personal experience Alister McGrath believes that spirituality represents the interface between ideas and life between Christian theology and human existence The book explores the centrality of McGrath s theology in the development of his views on spirituality McGrath does not approach spirituality from a theological void but instead uses his theological perspective as the foundation Through detailed examination of McGrath s previous work and the writing of other evangelicals The Merging of Theology and Spirituality offers an overview of a unique thinker s contributions and a guide for future theological and spiritual exploration Spirituality and World Religions: A Comparative Introduction George Saint-Laurent,1999-10-25 This accessible supplementary text examines how worshipers within the context of the world s dominant religions pursue personal transformation Spirituality and World Religions consists of eight chapters that pursue insight into spirituality generally as well as the respective spiritualities of Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism and Buddhism Puritan Reformed Spirituality Joel R. Beeke,2006 In these pages Dr Joel Beeke provides us with a first class tour of some of the great sites of Reformed theology and spirituality Here we meet John Calvin reformer extraordinaire then we encounter the learned Dr William Ames and the insightful Anthony Burgess Soon we have traveled north to meet the Scotsmen John Brown of Haddington the great Thomas Boston and the remarkable brothers Ebenezer and Ralph Erskine Predictably but happily our guide brings us to The Netherlands and to the time of the Nadere Reformatie before taking us back to the New World in the company of the remarkable Theodorus Jacobus Freylinghuysen But the climax of this tour is not reached until our trusted guide has brought us to the family roots from which all these theologians and pastors came to the strong foundations of Christian living in justification by faith and sanctification in life nourished by the power of biblical preaching Author Joel R Beeke Ph D Westminster Theological Seminary is president and professor of systematic theology and homiletics at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary pastor of the Heritage Netherlands Reformed Congregation in Grand Rapids Michigan editor of The Banner of Sovereign Grace Truth and author of numerous books

Apostasy and Reform in the Revelations of St. Birgitta Ingvar Fogelqvist,1993 Andreas Ehrenpreis and Hutterite Faith and Practice Wes Harrison,1997 This is a ground breaking study of Andreas Ehrenpreis leading 17th century bishop and second founder of the Hutterites Wes Harrison s study makes it clear that Ehrenpreis importance goes far beyond insuring survival for the Hutterites By reiterating restating and rebuilding Hutterites beliefs core communitarianism and patterns of authority Ehrenpreis set the course of Hutterite history ever since Volume 36 in the Studies in Anabaptist and Mennonite History Series

Time Sanctified Roger S. Wieck,Walters Art Gallery (Baltimore, Md.),2001 The illuminated manuscript was the primary vehicle of learning religion and art during the Middle Ages and Renaissance Within the pages of these hand painted treasures medieval civilisation flourished Of all the illuminated manuscripts from this period the Book of Hours was by far the most popular and among the most exquisitely made In the words of scholar L M J Delaisse it was the best seller of its time the most frequently commissioned book by both the aristocracy and the middle classes A selection of these splendid pages is presented in Time Sanctified along with a detailed discussion of their importance and their contents A prayer book for the laity the Book of Hours contains at its heart a series of prayers devoted to the Virgin Mary which were meant to be recited at seven canonical times or hours during the day The most highly skilled calligraphers and painters were commissioned to execute the finest decoration with the most luxurious materials such as gold silver and lapis lazuli An understanding of the contents in the Book of Hours both textually and pictorially is essential to our understanding of not only late medieval piety but of late medieval social life as well The contributions of four authorities on Books of Hours guide the reader Roger Wieck provides a detailed description of the contents of the Book of Hours Lawrence Poos discusses its social context Virginia Reinburg sheds light on the role of the Book of Hours in late medieval piety and John Plummer provides essential textual analysis The images are assembled from the Walters Collection which contains one of the finest and largest collections of Books of Hours in the world

The Encycloedia of Christianity, Vol. 5 Erwin Fahlbusch,Geoffrey William Bromiley,1999 Written by leading scholars from around the world the articles in this volume range from sin Sufism and terrorism to theology in the 19th and 20th centuries Vatican I and II and the virgin birth

Critical Review of Books in Religion,1989 "Sub Tilia, Magnum Et Opulentum" the Dominican Convent Unterlinden Amy Elmore Leonard,1991
