Shirley C. Guthrie Jr., 1986-11-01 Why is it that people who read the same Bible and talk about the same Christ even when they belong to the same church have trouble getting along with each other and committing themselves to a common witness in the world In this highly original book Shirley Guthrie looks at these questions and provides a framework that will help Christians better understand their own beliefs learn from each other and be more open to working for greater union in addressing serious issues Relocating World Christianity, 2017-09-04 Existing scholarship on World Christianities tends to privilege the local and the regional In addition to offering an explanation for this tendency the editors and contributors of this volume also offer a new perspective An Introduction Afterword and case studies argue for the importance of transregional connections in the study of Christianity worldwide Returning to an older post war conception of World Christianity as an international ecumenical fellowship the present volume aims to highlight the universalist globalising aspirations of many Christians worldwide While we do not neglect the importance of the local our aim is to give due weight to the significant transregional networks and exchanges that have constituted Christian communities both historically and in the present day Contributors are J Kwabena Asamoah Gyadu Naures Atto Joel Cabrita Pedro Feitoza David C Kirkpatrick Chandra Mallampalli David Maxwell Dorotty Nagy Peter C Phan Andrew Preston Joel Robbins Chloe Starr Charlotte Walker Said Emma Wild Wood The Religious Condition of Christendom Evangelical Alliance.
