Salvation and Modernity Fredrik Fällman, 2008-09-17 Salvation and Modernity presents an interpretation of the phenomenon of intellectual Christians in contemporary Chinese society with special focus paid to Liu Xiaofeng by exploring the main issues of faith salvation and the quest for a modern China Author Fredrik Fällman investigates similar developments in earlier centuries by linking past and present forms of cultural Christian phenomenon and the beliefs and ideas of Liu Xiaofeng and other scholars Their focus on Christianity implies a criticism of traditional Chinese value systems in particular Confucianism and Daoism The introduction of Christian theology and values into Chinese academia is a way of creating greater understanding for Western culture Many cultural Christians argue that this advanced understanding is a prerequisite for establishing a modern China Issues of personal faith and identity are also central in respect to modernity as well as to individual and national salvation Post Mao China is seeking a new foundation for values and cultural Christians have a definite role to play Since the choice of Christianity is an expression of individuality freedom and criticism of political structures cultural Christians will ultimately help in laying foundations for a theology in Chinese relations between the intellectuals and the Church The impact and importance of cultural Christians is becoming more visible now than ever before

Christian theology and intellectuals in China, 2003 The Intellectual World of Late Antique Christianity Lewis Ayres, Michael W. Champion, Matthew R. Crawford, 2023-10-26 The Intellectual World of Late Antique Christianity explores new perspectives on early Christian epistemology in relation to the changing discourses institutions and material culture of late antiquity Early Christian modes of knowing and ordering knowledge involved complex processes of appropriation reproduction and reconfiguration of Jewish and classical epistemologies This helped Christians develop cultures of interpretation and argument as textually oriented religious communities within the Roman Empire and beyond It laid an intellectual foundation that would be built upon and modified in a variety of later contexts Encompassing Greek Latin and Syriac Christianity and an historical arc that stretches from the New Testament to Bede this volume traces how diverse theological commitments resulted in distinctive Christian accounts of knowing It foregrounds the myriad ways in which early Christian epistemology was embedded in earlier intellectual traditions and forms of life and how they established norms for communal life and powerful ways of acting in the world This Is Your Hour John Carter Wood, 2019-04-16 This book examines responses of a Christian intellectual group in 1930s and 1940s Britain to totalitarianism and war Seeking middle ways through what has been called the age of extremes the group sought to apply faith to the social order influence public opinion and inspire a social renewal in the years surrounding the Second World War Commonweal, 1925 Chinese Intellectuals and the Gospel Samuel D. Ling, 1999 This book introduces modern mainland Chinese intellectual history and presents the strategies and models Christians have employed to reach these Chinese intellectuals Publisher Knights of the Golden Rule Peter J. Frederick, 2014-07-15 This is a book about American intellectuals as would be social reformers and what happens to them in the arena of practical politics Specifically it examines the lives of ten highly idealistic Christian socialist and anarchist intellectuals of the 1890s who were profoundly influenced indeed inspired by the prophetic social messages and exemplary lives of Tolstoy Mazzini and Ruskin The ten Americans including ministers journalists professors and poets were constantly thwarted in their efforts to apply the Golden Rule and the ethics of Jesus not only to the socioeconomic institutions of their society but to their own lives as well These ten Christian knights rode high on clouds of words carrying swords of good intentions tilting at windmills often of their own despair As a result they paid the price as Emerson said of being too intellectual This is indeed a story of noble dreams frustration agonizing self doubts and ultimately of failure Peter J Frederick develops his argument by comparing and contrasting the intellectuals in pairs examining the many forms frustrated activism can take His study emerges as a critique of the Social Gospel movement from a New Left perspective implicitly it is a critique of the contemporary New Left approached with empathetic understanding Ethical decisive action he concludes is essential not only for effective reform but for the psychic well being of the intellectual The Intellectual Foundations of Christian and Jewish Discourse Jacob Neusner, 1997 The Intellectual Foundations of Christian and Jewish Discourse argues that the Judaic and Christian heirs of Scripture adopted and adapted to their own purposes and tasks Greek philosophical modes of thought and argument The authors explore how the earliest intellectuals of Christianity and Judaism shaped a tradition of articulated conflict and reasoned argument in the search for religious truth that was to be shared through continuing that argument with others Neusner and Chilton examine using the formative sources of Judaism and Christianity the literary media of adaptation and reform precisely where and how we identify in the foundation writings of Christianity and Rabbinic Judaism the new opposing modes of articulated conflict and reasoned argument that through Christianity and Judaism Greek philosophy and science bequeathed to the West Current History, 1927 The Rise of the Early Christian Intellectual Lewis Ayres, H. Clifton Ward, 2020-05-05 The study of the growth of early Christian intellectual life is of perennial interest to scholars This volume advances discussion by exploring ways in which Christian writers in the second century did not so much draw on Hellenistic intellectual traditions and models as they were inevitably embedded in those traditions The volume contains papers from a seminar in Rome in 2016 that explored the nature and activity of the emergent Christian intellectual between the late first century and the early third century The papers show that Hellenistic scholarly cultures were the milieu within which Christian modes of thinking developed At the same time the essays show how Christian thinkers made use of the cultures of which they were part in distinctive ways adapting existing traditions because of Christian beliefs and needs The figures studied include Papias from the early part of the second century Tatian Irenaeus and Clement of Alexandria from the later second century One paper on Eusebius of Caesarea explores the Christian adaptation of Hellenistic scholarly methods of commentary Christian figures are studied in the light of debates within Classics and Jewish studies Self-culture; Physical, Intellectual, Moral and Spiritual James Freeman Clarke, 1908 History of the Intellectual Development of Europe John William Draper, 1876 *The Intellectual repository for the New Church.
