Christians With Secular Power:

Luther and Calvin on Secular Authority John Calvin, Martin Luther, 1991-09-27 Martin Luther and John Calvin were the principal magisterial Reformers of the sixteenth century they sought to enlist the cooperation of rulers in the work of reforming the Church However neither regarded the relationship between Reformed Christians and the secular authorities as comfortable or unproblematic The two pieces translated here Luther's On Secular Authority and Calvin's On Civil Government constitute their most sustained attempts to find the proper balance between these two commitments Despite their mutual respect there were wide divergences between them Luther's On Secular Authority would later be cited en bloc in favour of religious toleration whereas Calvin envisaged secular authority as an agency for the compulsory establishment of the external conditions of Christian virtue and the suppression of dissent The introduction glossary chronology and bibliography contained in this volume locate the texts in the broader context of the theology and political thinking of their authors
