similar texts as they are both about the same specific event there are a lot of differences to be found This essay will discuss the differences and similarities between the two texts and analyse and compare them using a number of theories of textual analysis Karl B hler s Organon Model Paul Grice s Conversational Maxims and Michael Halliday and Ruqaiya Hassan s Context of Situation It should be noted that even when the vocabulary used has a slightly negative connotation for example flouting or lack of this in no way means that one text is superior to the other or that the aspect mentioned is in fact a negative one The vocabulary used is only to describe and analyse not to judge the two texts
