Bailey, 2020-01-21 Dr Brian Bailey presents this commentary on the epistle to the Ephesians which beautifully portrays Christ as the warrior King clothed with the armor of God This same armor is available to us by His grace so that we too may be victorious over the enemy It is the author's prayer that the readers might enter into these beautiful truths that we might be raised up to sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus 2:6 The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints, 1968 Catalogue of the Library ... Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States. Bailey, 2020-01-10 Inspired by a series of visions given by the Holy Spirit Dr Bailey examines the pre-existence birth and early years ministry crucifixion and resurrection of Christ as seen in the four gospels Throughout this work runs the sense of awesome love of the Father in Heaven for His only Son who took upon Himself the form of a man fully obeying the will of His Father even unto the death of the cross You will be encouraged as you see the fervency with which Christ lived so that we might have abundant life by living according to the pattern He set before us in His own life upon this earth Iowa Library Quarterly, 1924 Family Values and the Rise of the Christian Right Seth Dowland, 2015-10-20 During the last three decades of the twentieth century evangelical leaders and conservative politicians developed a political agenda that thrust family values onto the nation's consciousness. Ministers, legislators, and laypeople came together to fight abortion, gay rights, and major feminist objectives. They supported private Christian schools, home schooling, and a strong military. Family values leaders like Jerry Falwell, Phyllis Schlafly, Anita Bryant, and James Dobson became increasingly supportive of the Republican Party, which accommodated the language of family values in its platforms and campaigns. The family values agenda created a bond between evangelicalism and political conservatism. Family Values and the Rise of the Christian Right chronicles how the family values agenda became so powerful in American political life and why it appealed to conservative evangelical Christians. Conservative evangelicals saw traditional gender norms as crucial in cultivating morality. They thought these gender norms would reaffirm the importance of clear lines of authority that the social revolutions of the 1960s had undermined. In the 1970s and 1980s, then evangelicals founded Christian academies and developed homeschooling curricula that put conservative ideas about gender and authority front and center. Campaigns against abortion and feminism coalesced around a belief that God created women as wives and mothers, a belief that conservative evangelicals thought feminists and pro-choice advocates threatened. Likewise, Christian right leaders championed a particular vision of masculinity in their campaigns against gay rights and nuclear disarmament. Movements like the Promise Keepers called men to take responsibility for leading their families. Christian right political campaigns and pro-family organizations drew on conservative evangelical beliefs about men, women, children, and authority. These beliefs, known collectively as family values, became the most important religious agenda in late twentieth-century American politics. ...
