Directing Discourse/7403 Marion Blank,M. Ann Marquis,1987-08-01 The Tavistock Learning Group Clive Hazell,2018-05-08 In The Tavistock Learning Group Exploration Outside the Traditional Frame the authors attempt to expand the heuristic theoretical and applied dimensions of Group Relations paradigms by pairing classical Group Relations concepts with typically non Tavistock psychology paradigms and social sciences concepts Under the broad domain of psychologically informed constructs Lacanian psychoanalysis existential philosophy and bioenergetics are applied Under a somewhat broader range of social science conceptualization the capacity for abstraction is linked with anti work in groups the large group is re imagined as an extension of community dynamics and dysfunction and the role of symbol systems symbology and semiotics are examined in relation to sophisticated work groups Lastly non Tavistock models of group development and conceptualization are re interpreted and explained using a group as a whole framework

Taking Responsibility, Law and the Changing Family Heather Keating,2016-04-01 This volume considers the impact that changing family norms have had on the responsibilities that the law allocates to people in family relationships Contributions are drawn from a wide variety of jurisdictions in which scholars lawyers judges and policy makers have been trying to discern what the appropriate correlation should be between the responsibilities that people undertake in family settings and the law that regulates family responsibilities Part I looks at the changes that have occurred in adult relationships and what they have done for our sense of the family responsibilities that adults take for one another Part II reflects on the changing nature of the parental relationship in order to reconsider the way in which changing family structures affect the responsibilities we think people raising children should have The third part brings the rights discourse that has dominated jurisprudence for much of the last fifty years into the discussion of family transformation and the responsibilities to which it gives rise In the final section the authors reflect on the difficulties of trying to resolve the meaning of responsibility in a world of changing families The collection brings together some of the most eminent and imaginative scholars and judges working in this area It will be a valuable resource for all those interested in the legal regulation of the transforming family

Shakespeare's Reception and Interpretation in the Baltics Ramunė Marcinkevičiūtė,Maris Peters,Guna Zeltiņa,2023-11-13 This book is the first collection of research in English devoted to interpretations of Shakespeare's works in all three Baltic countries using historical structural and comparative analysis. The purpose of this edited collection written by leading Shakespeare researchers in the Baltics is to introduce international readers to the unique experience of Baltic theatre to analyse the importance of Shakespeare's appropriation during the process of development of Baltic national culture and to highlight the key tendencies and personalities involved in this process. This book will provide rich informative and analytical material for students, teachers, lecturers and researchers of Shakespeare as well as theatre theoreticians and practitioners.

George Saunders Philip Coleman, Steve Gronert Ellerhoff, 2017-03-25. This timely volume explores the signal contribution George Saunders has made to the development of the short story form in books ranging from CivilWarLand in Bad Decline 1996 to Tenth of December 2013. The book brings together a team of scholars from around the world to explore topics ranging from Saunders's treatment of work and religion to biopolitics and the limits of the short story form. It also includes an interview with Saunders specially conducted for the volume and a preliminary bibliography of his published works and critical responses to an expanding and always exciting creative oeuvre. Coinciding with the release of the Saunders first novel Lincoln in the Bardo 2017, George Saunders Critical Essays is the first book-length consideration of a major contemporary author's work. It is essential reading for anyone interested in twenty-first century fiction.

The Gentleman's magazine section is a digest of selections from the weekly press; the Trader's monthly intelligencer section consists of news, foreign and domestic, vital statistics, a register of the month's new publications and a calendar of forthcoming trade fairs.

COVID and... Emily Winderman, Allison L. Rowland, Jennifer Malkowski, 2023-09-01. Covid and How To Do Rhetoric in a Pandemic is among the first edited collections to consider how rhetoric shapes Covid's disease trajectory. Arguing that the circulation of any virus must be understood in tandem with the public communication accompanying it, this collection converses with interdisciplinary stakeholders also committed to the project of social wellness during pandemic times. With inventive ways of thinking about structural inequities in health, these essays showcase the forces that pandemic rhetoric exerts across health conditions, politics and histories of social injustice.
