Disciples Of Love:

Love for the Aching Heart Bishop David E. Lewis, 2015-02-25 The purpose of this book is to give an overview of the power of the love of God to those who are aching and craving for it and how we can help them reach their full potential in Christ The church of the Living God has a tremendous responsibility to share his love to this dying world Many people think that God doesn't love them so they express the idea that people think that they are not important They believed God thinks of them in the same way Therefore this book is written to let them know that God loves them regardless of their status in life In order for us to operate in the spirit of love the Holy Spirit must purify our hearts and motivate us to assist and respond to the situation of others However you must have a desire to love for love is a choice you must make If you love you must demonstrate the spirit of forgiveness The first stage of forgiveness is the decision not to try to inflict a reciprocal amount of pain on anyone who caused you hurt When I forgive you I give up the right to hurt you back When you hold fast to an unforgiving spirit toward another person you tend to believe only bad things about them You might think of them only in terms of the hurt they caused you and you want to forget their humanity This book sets forth the principle of love for those who are aching for it and teaches us to forgive as Christ also forgave us You must be wholly submissive to the leading of the Holy Spirit The Evangelical Repository and United Presbyterian Worker, 1875 Love Divine Jordan

Wessling, 2020-06-01 Love Divine provides a systematic account of the deep and rich love that God has for humans While the associated theological territory is vast the objective is to contend for a unified paradigm regarding fundamental issues pertaining to the God of love who deigns to share His life of love with any human willing to receive it Realizing this objective includes clarifying and defending specific conclusions concerning how the doctrine of divine love should be approached what God's love is what role love plays in motivating God's creation and subsequent governance of humans how God's love of humans factors into His emotional life which humans it is that God loves in a saving manner what the punitive wrath of God is and how it relates to God's love for humans and how it might be possible for God to share the intra trinitarian life of love with human beings As the book unfolds the chapters interlock and build upon one another in the effort to trace nodal issues related to God's love as it begins in Him and then spills out in the creation redemption and glorification of humanity a kind of exitus reditus structure that is driven by the unyielding love of God Prayer in the New Testament Helen Doohan, Leonard Doohan, 2016-10-07 In recent years Christians have increasingly turned to Scripture to nourish their prayer life Prayer in the New Testament focuses on biblical prayer seeing its intimate connection with contemporary spirituality and discovering models in the spiritual leaders of New Testament times The New Testament writers gave their communities understandings of prayer and its centrality for the person and community of faith Their complementary presentations help us catch a glimpse of the richness of prayer for the early community and rediscover its centrality for ourselves New Testament Ethics Frank J. Matera, 1996-01-01 Neither Jesus nor Paul developed a formal ethical system yet each left a moral legacy that forms the core of New Testament ethics In this book Frank Matera examines the ethic found in the teachings of Jesus and Paul He explores the broad range of moral concerns found in these writings and finds an identifiable unity that underlies the ethical teachings of both
