

BAPTISTS: BELIEVER'S BAPTISM

Ask most non-Baptists (and even some Baptists!) what is the Baptist distinctive and they likely will say, "Baptism by immersion only and no baptism of infants." Of course, there is no one Baptist distinctive. Why then do many people regard baptism as practiced by Baptists to be our distinctive? A possible reason is that Baptists are one of the very few denominations which practice believer's baptism by immersion and do so as a symbol of having been saved, not as a requirement for salvation.

In previous centuries, rulers of both state and church launched persecutions against Baptists for this practice. In the face of such harsh resistance, as well as the relative inconvenience of immersion, why have Baptists stubbornly held to the belief in and practice of believer's immersion? The answer is found in basic Baptist convictions.

Articles XXXIX and XL of the First London Confession
by Baptists in 1644
(original spelling, capitalization, and punctuation)

"That Baptisme is an Ordinance of the new Testament, given by Christ, to be dispensed onely upon persons professing faith, or that are Disciples, or taught, who upon a profession of faith, ought to be baptized.

"The way and manner of the dispensing of this Ordinance the Scripture holds out to be dipping or plunging the whole body under water...."

Baptism Is Only for Believers

The New Testament records that baptism always followed conversion, never preceded it, and was not necessary for salvation (Acts 2:1-41; 8:36-39; 16:30-33). Since Baptists look to the Bible as our sole authority for faith and practice, we believe that baptism is only for those who have put their faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

Furthermore, Baptists point out that in the New Testament a commitment to believe in and follow Jesus as Lord and Savior was always voluntary. Therefore, baptism as a sign of such commitment ought always to be voluntary.

Because of these convictions based on the Bible, Baptists do not baptize infants. This refusal has resulted in persecution. For example, Henry Dunster, the first president of Harvard University, was forced not only from office but also banished from Cambridge for refusing to have his infant children baptized in the state-supported church.
