For the Love of a Horse Max Evans,2019-10-01 In his eighty plus years Max Evans has known owned ridden and been thrown by quite a number of horses In For the Love of a Horse Evans shares his favorite horse stories for all to enjoy As Max explains I wanted a wide range of adventures from another time with different horses of different breeds and a sense of history of those special days Max begins with his first horse Cricket which he received when he was four years old At the age of ten he helped with a horse drive from far southeast New Mexico through west Texas and on to the final destination in Guymon Oklahoma Later PDQ was a horse that seemed very gentle and laid back until someone rode him And then there was Molly who liked to fly through and around obstacles on coyote hunts This book is for all those who enjoy reading horse stories as much as Max loves telling them Saddle up The recognition is long overdue Max Evans is sui generis He understands the present West better than anyone else what it's like to be there now living in two worlds of the pickup truck and the bronco Charles Champlin former Denver bureau chief of Time and retired arts editor of The Los Angeles Times quoted in The New York Times

Animal Stories Max Evans,2013-08-26 Legendary western author Max Evans has spent his entire life working with cows and horses These rangeland animals and other creatures both domestic and wild play pivotal roles in his stories This magnificent collection beautifully illustrated by cowboy artist Keith Walters showcases twenty six animal tales penned by Evans during his long and celebrated career Both fiction and nonfiction the stories in this collection get us inside the heads and hearts of numerous four legged critters dogs horses burros goats cattle deer coyotes and more The Old One for example shows us the world through the eyes of a prairie dog as she watches her latest litter of pups rolling and tumbling around the mound and thinks of all the things she will need to teach them And in The One Eyed Sky an aging cow with a new calf and an old coyote with a litter to feed circle each other warily trying to protect their young until a rancher intervenes Not one to shy away from difficult subjects Evans also delves into the animal nature of human beings as in The Heart of the Matter where two Vietnam vets and friends kill a deer and then turn their rifles on each other These captivating tales display Evans's trademark mix of raucous humor and vivid poetic descriptions of the high plains of West Texas and his beloved Hi Lo Country in northeastern New Mexico He reminds his readers of simpler times and more honorable people even as he evokes the merciless environment in which his characters both animal and human struggle to survive The Commandrine and Other Poems Joyelle McSweeney, 2004 The brilliance of Joyelle McSweeney's poems is a given what remains delightfully open to negotiation are its methodologies and its mien Is she an earnest relator using wit and gesture to tell the story faster Or does she take the piss of her subjects using perfected skills of mimicry and divination to exploit spot on their errant humanities In her second book McSweeney finds her subjects in the long form The Commandrine is a verse play that in nine scenes tells the story of sailors Zest Coast Ivory and Irish and their watery run in with the Devil The Cockatoos Morose stirs Eliotic grandeur with Stevensian absurdity for a cocktail of delirious observation and rigorous leaps of the sort McSweeney is certain to become famous for Crusade dream flips like a standard The standard narrows to a point And points Then it dips like a fern The Presbyterian, 1909 Why the Devil Chose New England for His Work Jason Brown, 2011-10-18 Brown's comic take on America today is both amazing and memorable One of the most brilliant and original new writers to appear for a long time Alison Lurie Pulitzer Prize winning author Everything Natalie said seemed to herself to have been said better by him He was less fond of speaking however than he was of hitting people in the face which seemed a more likely source of her love to those of us who knew him begins Jason Brown's linked collection of beautifully haunted violent and wry stories set in the densely forested lands of northern New England In these tales of forbidden love runaway children patrimony alcohol class inheritance and survival Brown's elegant prose emits both quiet despair and a poignant sense of hope and redemption These vivid accounts of troubled lives combine the powerful family drama of Andre Dubus and Russell Banks the dark wit of Denis Johnson the lost souls of Charles D Ambrosio and the New England gothic of Nathaniel Hawthorne One quality that makes these stories feel unmistakably new is Brown's seamless oddly cinematic shifts among points of view He has a gift for crisp angular sentences some of which are embedded with a quiet humor Time Out New York In Jason Brown's fine story collection the inhabitants of Vaughn Maine are stalked not by Stephen King horror but by intimate afflictions of blood accident and history Yet their stories are too vivid to be entirely bleak Maine's woods and rivers its changing light are the beautifully rendered constants in a harsh even malevolent world The Boston Globe Boys' Life, 1936-08 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting Johnny Comes Marching Brooke Albertson, 2019-08-14 Devastated by the death of his Confederate father and amid rumors of his father's cowardice fourteen year old Johnny Shipley now orphaned is on fire to kill Yankees salvage his family's name and prove himself a man Johnny must find a way to get into the conflict But how He is drawn into numerous adventures and misadventures but principally into friendship with Jeremiah a runaway slave who unaccountably has some connection with
