Critical Responses About the Black Family in Toni Morrison's God Help the Child explores the integral role of what Kobi Kambon has called the conscious African family in developing commercial success stories such as those of Morrison's protagonist Bride. Initially, Bride's accomplishments are an extension of a superficial cult of celebrity which inhabits and undermines the development of meaningful interpersonal relationships until a significant literal and metaphorical journey helps her redefine success by facilitating the building of community and family.

The Village Ivan Alekseevich Bunin, 1923

A short novel by the Nobel Prize-winning Russian author Ivan Bunin, written in 1909 and first published in 1910 by the Saint Petersburg magazine Sovremenny Mir, issues Nos 3, 10, 11 under the title Novelet The Village, caused much controversy at the time, though it was highly praised by Maxim Gorky, who from then on regarded the author as the major figure in Russian literature among others and is now generally regarded as Bunin's first masterpiece. Composed of brief episodes set in its author's birthplace at the time of the 1905 Revolution, it tells the story of two peasant brothers, one a brute drunk, the other a gentler, more sympathetic character. Bunin's realistic portrayal of the country life jarred with the idealized picture of unspoiled peasants which was common for the mainstream Russian literature and featured the characters deemed offensive by many, which were so far below the average in terms of intelligence as to be scarcely human.
