Perspectives on Science and Christian Faith ,2007      Christian Ethics Introduced Hans O. Tiefel,2024-03-11

Christian Ethics Introduced asks why humans count as ends in themselves The biblical answer was is that humans have standing inherent worth as creatures in the image of God This traditional answer yielded to seventeenth and eighteenth century enlightenment secularism To these secularists human reason promised to be a surer and more peaceable foundation for a just culture than religion Human rationality the light of human reason would enlighten and improve the human condition Two world wars and more realistic trends in new social sciences created not just awareness of human irrationality but fostered skepticism of sound foundations for morality and justice It seemed that both traditional religion and enlightened reason fell short of what had been hoped And the cause of failure may not lie in traditional religion or in human irrationality Rather the problem might lie in human conduct Specifically it may lie in the human inclination to favor self over others of the me outranking the we Christian responses to the human failure to live a moral and just life recognize the persistence of immoral conduct acknowledge it in regard to oneself ask for forgiveness and make amends and peace with God and with those wronged      Moral Theology in an Age of Renewal Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor,2003 This study offers a comprehensive survey of developments in moral theology since the Second Vatican Council The author discusses the call of the Council for the renewal of moral theology and the role the Council itself played in this renewal Odozor also explores the various issues and controversies which have marked the discipline since the 1960s The dramatic changes and developments in moral theology during this period rival any in the history of the Church of Christian morality natural law scripture and ethics moral norms the Church s teaching authority virtue ethics and casuistry Odozor provides a constructive proposal for a common ground which makes these debates in moral discourse possible ethicists systematic theologians and anyone interested in Catholic cultural and intellectual history since Vatican II      Theology & Public Policy ,1996      AFER. ,2005

Environmental Ethics ,2004      Ethics Miguel A. De La Torre,2013-01-01 This survey text for religious ethics and theological ethics courses explores how ethical concepts defined as liberationist which initially was a Latin American Catholic phenomenon is presently manifest around the globe and within the United States across different racial ethnic and gender groups Authored by several contributors this book elucidates how the powerless and disenfranchised within marginalized communities employ their religious beliefs to articulate a liberationist liberative religious ethical perspective Students will thus comprehend the diversity existing within the liberative ethical discourse and know which scholars and texts to read and will encounter practical ways to further social justice      The Princeton Seminary Bulletin Princeton Theological Seminary,2004 No 1 of each vol is the academic catalog of the Seminary 1907 76      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001
