Christian Excellence Jon Johnston,1985 Identity in Action Perry L Glanzer,2021-02-09 Colleges today are filled with talk about identity and identity politics But Glanzer shifts the conversation in Identity in Action by focusing on something one rarely hears anyone mention the idea of identity excellence In various professions identity excellence means becoming an excellent accountant biologist historian social worker or teacher But professors rarely go farther to talk the identities that really matter to students What does it mean to be an excellent friend a good neighbor a steward of one's body possessions or the environment And what about social identities How does Christianity impact how I think about race or gender or citizenship Students are often unaware of how to resolve conflicts between these identities on their own Identity in Action empowers readers to be excellent and think deeply about the why questions of life in a practical theologically informed manner With personal stories and expert research Glanzer explains how students can untangle the confusion and integrate their core identities with excellence

Chevalier, etc George PRITCHARD (Baptist Minister),1824 Christian Excellence Jon Johnston,1985 By the Renewing of Your Minds Ellen T. Charry,1999 This book develops the thesis that classical Christian theology seeks to help believers flourish by knowing and loving God Ellen Charry argues this premise by example offering a close reading of a number of classical texts from the New Testament era to the Reformation including works of Paul Augustine Athanasius Basil of Caesarea Anselm and Calvin She points out the pastoral and moral aims that shape the teachings of these theologians on a wide range of topics including the Trinity human beings as created in the image of God the incorporation of Jews and Gentiles into the body of Christ in baptism the incarnation death and resurrection of Christ and the divinity of the Holy Spirit Charry explains that the very logic of their arguments is shaped by the author's concern for the goodness and happiness that should result from living into the doctrines She further shows that although the spiritual and pastoral purposes of these writings are many and complex they are invariably concerned to foster what modern people can without difficulty recognize as human dignity what she calls excellence in action affection and self appraisal
