

By perfection I mean the humble, gentle,
patient love of God, and our neighbour, ruling our tempers, words, and actions.

Christian Perfection:

Christian Perfection Asa Mahan, 1875 A Plain Account of Christian Perfection John Wesley, 2013-08-20 John Wesley 1703-1791 is the chief architect and source of inspiration to the teaching commonly referred to as Christian perfection. Among his many publications, the book that best summarizes his teachings on holiness is A Plain Account of Christian Perfection as believed and taught by the Reverend Mr John Wesley from the year 1725 to the year 1777. For many years, this timeless classic has been reproduced in various formats. Now, for the first time, John Wesley's A Plain Account of Christian Perfection is being offered in a definitive Annotated Edition by Mark K. Olson. This edition is volume one in a projected three-volume series. The Annotated Edition offers the following: The entire text has been divided into chapters and verses for detailed study and cross-referencing. The introduction examines in detail when and why Wesley wrote A Plain Account. The verse-by-verse commentary discusses the history and background behind the text, offering unsurpassed explanation of Wesley's doctrine of perfect love. Five end notes address Wesley's early doctrinal development, the impact of Aldersgate on his perfection doctrine, many testimonies of attaining perfection, and other relevant material from early Methodism. Over 150 quotations from Wesley's sermons, writings, and letters offer unlimited clarification to his views on perfection. The insights of many Wesley scholars are included: Albert Outler, Randy Maddox, Kenneth Collins, William Greathouse, Thomas Oden, Harold Lindstrom, Stephen Gunter, H. Ray Dunning, Theodore Runyon, plus many others. A timeline details every event in Wesley's lifetime corresponding to A Plain Account. Several exhaustive indexes are included: scripture annotation, subject, author, Wesley quotations, and two synonym indexes from Wesley's Journal and A Plain Account. The Essential Reading Section further empowers the study of Wesley's theology of perfection. Included are: o Twenty key sermons along with their dates and locations in Wesley's Works, both the Jackson and Bicentennial editions; Wesley's most important writings on perfection, listing their date and location in his Works; 250 letters relevant to his theology of perfection. The index includes their date and location in Wesley's Works with a brief description of their contents. Two additional volumes are planned in the series: John Wesley's Theology of Perfection will offer specialized studies for those wanting to dig deeper into Wesley's theology of perfection. The third volume, John Wesley's Doctrine of Christian Perfection, will present in systematic format every facet of Wesley's views on perfection. The projected release for both volumes is 2006 and 2007. Together, these three volumes will present one of the most thorough and exhaustive studies ever done on Wesley's most beloved yet most controversial doctrine.

Plain Account of Christian Perfection John Wesley, 2015-01-02 John Wesley offers a comprehensive teaching on the doctrine of Christian perfection. In it, he describes the evolution of his own theological reasoning, telling the story of how he came to understand and preach this doctrine in his own life. The Scripture Doctrine of Christian Perfection Stated and Defended George Peck, 1853 The Call to Christian Perfection Samuel Chadwick, 2013-08-02 What is Christian Perfection? Why are so many professing Christians afraid of the doctrine? Why is the idea so vehemently resisted? These answers and more are found in Samuel Chadwick's The Call to Christian Perfection. Christian Perfection says Chadwick is not infallibility. And neither is it encompassed in the dissolution of our physical existence. Is moral perfection possible in this life? Chadwick's presentation to the affirmative is contained in these pages. Based on John Wesley's teachings on entire sanctification, The Call to Christian Perfection examines the Biblical basis of the doctrine. The reality of entire sanctification is only realized through crises in which the soul cries out to be conformed to the image of Christ and the experience is as much a crisis as conversion itself. Without holiness, says the Scriptures, no man shall see the Lord. This being so, it is vitally important that we rightly and Biblically define holiness. To the shame of the professing church, much of it is content in their less than perfect state, actually defending their spots and wrinkles, casting the blame for their worldly imperfection upon their domineering flesh or even on God Himself. It is a tragedy when holiness people are not holy people.

I shall give you such views of truth and only such as I feel most willing to meet in the great and dreadful day of account. I shall also give them as far as possible in Scripture language that it may be seen on what I rest my faith and whether I do or do not pervert the word of God. The all-absorbing question with me so far as my own eternal interests are concerned is this: How shall I become obedient to that high command of the Most High God: Be ye holy for I am holy. I Peter 1:16 Lev 11:44 Follow peace with all men and holiness without which no man shall see the Lord Hebrews 12:14 The end is near. We have not a moment to lose. Light is to shine forth from God's people in clear distinct rays bringing Jesus before the churches and before the world. Our work is not to be restricted to those who already know the truth; our field is the world. The instrumentalities to be used are those souls who gladly receive the light of truth which God communicates to them. These are God's agencies for communicating the knowledge of truth to the world. If through the grace of Christ His people will become new bottles, He will fill them with new wine. God will give additional light and old truths will be recovered and replaced in the framework of truth and wherever the laborers go they will triumph. As Christ's ambassadors they are to search the Scriptures to see for the truths that have been hidden beneath the rubbish of error. And every ray of light received is to be communicated to others. One interest will prevail, one subject will swallow up every other. Christ Our Righteousness Review Herald Dec 23 1890
