Christian Zionism:

Christian Zionism Faydra L. Shapiro, 2015-10-12 Christian Zionism has received no small amount of criticism from observers who take issue with the movement's pro Israel politics or its theology. What if we listened seriously to what Christian Zionists and Jewish partners said about Jews, Judaism, and Israel? Christian Zionism is a vibrant contemporary movement that agree or disagree has more than just political implications. Christian Zionism has also brought an unprecedented number of Jews and Christians into contact and dialogue in houses of worship, community centers, rallies, and of course in Israel. As such, Christian Zionism is a useful case that allows us to think about contemporary Jewish-Christian relations in new ways. While some would argue that this is really just about pro-Israel alliance building, Christian Zionism Navigating the Jewish-Christian Border shows how this movement significantly engages basic questions of identity and the borders between Judaism and Christianity. Christian Zionism serves as one chapter in the history of two religious communities and the fraught relationships between them facing together the globalized world of the twenty-first century.

Evangelicals and Israel Stephen Spector, 2008-12-09 This is a study of Christian Zionism and the ways that religion and politics converge in American evangelicals' love and support for Israel and the Jewish people. Because of evangelicals' influence on the Middle East policies of George W. Bush, this is a topic of immense current importance. It bears on some of the most difficult and dangerous global issues: not only the Israeli-Palestinian conflict but also the relationship between the West and the Islamic world.

Christian Zionism Stephen Sizer, 2021-09-13 I am glad to commend Stephen Sizer's groundbreaking critique of Christian Zionism. His comprehensive overview of its roots, its theological basis, and its political consequences is very timely. I myself believe that Zionism, both political and Christian, is incompatible with biblical faith. Stephen's book has helped to reinforce this conviction. Rev. Dr. John Stott: I believe Stephen Sizer is one of the most authoritative scholars in the world on the vital issue of Christian Zionism. He is a very important voice speaking out against this destructive movement that is killing us, Palestinians, through its theology. Canon Naim Ateek: Stephen Sizer's Christian Zionism: Road Map to Armageddon is essential reading for any Western evangelical trying to understand the religious dimensions of American support for Israel. Sizer writes as an insider within the church, not as a critic watching from afar. And he shows with exacting clarity how evangelical eschatology has now embedded itself in a modern political ideology. One quick read of this book will change anyone's perspective on the Middle East permanently. Professor Gary M. Burge: Congratulations on Christian Zionism. The index alone makes my mouth water since this is the scholarly treatment to counteract the rabid prophecy pack for which I had been searching. I couldn't be happier that this is published. You and I see eye to eye on this issue. Yours is a true prophetic voice so badly needed in the current prophecy frenzy. And when this mania also affects national and international policy, the danger takes on larger proportions. Professor Paul Maier: Stephen Sizer's work on Christian Zionism is the most important and comprehensive on the subject to date and should be read by all students of the Middle East and by Christians concerned about a just resolution to the Palestinian Israeli conflict Christian Zionism raises vital theological and political challenges that must be addressed head on by Christians in the West particularly evangelicals The impact of this terribly misguided movement is increasingly putting Christians in the Middle East at risk and it seems a far cry from the witness and message of Jesus Christ Dr Donald Wagner This study of Christian Zionism based on Stephen Sizer s doctoral thesis is of seminal significance It provides a fascinating survey of the history of Christian Zionism and an in depth analysis of the theology of this highly important and influential movement Rabbi Professor Dan Cohn Sherbok

Christian Zionism and the Restoration of Israel Colin Chapman,2021-03-31 How should Christians today understand the many promises and prophecies in the Old Testament about the future of Israel and its land Are Christian Zionists justified in believing that these have been fulfilled in the return of Jews to their land since the 1880s and the creation of the State of Israel in 1948 This book discusses all the key texts about the restoration of Israel that are quoted in these debates questioning the Christian Zionist interpretation and offering an alternative This is followed by a detailed study of two important Old Testament texts dealing with the future of Israel Ezekiel 33 47 and Zechariah 9 13 understanding them in their original context and exploring how they are interpreted in the New Testament This is no theoretical ivory tower debate We are dealing here with the most bitter and protracted conflict of the last 150 years and the way we interpret the Bible has profound political consequences Comprehending Christian Zionism Göran Gunner ,Robert O. Smith,2014-10-01 The question of the Christian Zionism the religious and political support of the state of Israel is fiercely debated within theology and the church as well as in the wider political and social arenas Examination of the issue is however highly relevant and crucial as it cuts across a wide array of constitutive features and beliefs of Christian life from interpretation of scripture to religious and political ethics Comprehending Christian Zionism brings together an international consortium of scholars and researchers to reflect on the network of issues and topics surrounding this critical subject these essays are the fruit of several years of collaboration by the special working group on Christian Zionism The volume includes essays from Christian scholars around the globe as well as Jewish and Palestinian contributors to provide interfaith contextual dialogue Taken together the volume provides a lens on the history of Zionism within Christian theology from a variety of locations and perspectives and offers a constructive multidimensional path for assessment and introspection around the meaning of Zionism to Christian faith and practice Christian Zionism Faydra L. THEOPOLITICS AND BIBLICAL MYTH-MAKING BÜLENT ŞENAY,2021-01-01 This book is meant to serve as a reader material an instrument designed to help students of Christian Zionism regardless of their background age and ultimate interest find their way in existing literature A Short History of Christian Zionism Donald M. Lewis,2021-08-31 Christian Zionism influences global politics especially U S foreign policy and has deeply affected Jewish Christian and Muslim Christian relations With a fair minded longitudinal study of this dynamic yet controversial movement Donald M Lewis traces its lineage from biblical sources through the Reformation to various movements of today The Restoration of Israel Gerhard Falk,2006 The restoration of Israel to the Holy Land was originally an English Protestant idea Jewish Zionism came later and succeeded only because of the Holocaust The principal impetus for the promotion of a Jewish return to Zion was religious and began with the translation of the Bible from the Hebrew to English by Tindale Because literature in the English language depicted Jews almost always in an unfavorable light both British and American religious and political leaders were ambivalent about Jews Nevertheless the religious impulse to restore Israel became political in the twentieth century and succeeded with the establishment of the Jewish state in 1948 Christian Zionism in Africa Cynthia Holder Rich,2021-01-06 Christian Zionism a movement based on the belief that support of Israel and Israeli ownership of and residence in Jerusalem is a prerequisite for Christ s return has been a significant substratum within theologies and ecclesiologies of many churches in the US and Europe for centuries Since the 1970s US based Christian Zionism organizations encouraged by and collaborating with the Israeli government have used a significant amount of resources to spread the movement into other regions of the world including Africa In many African countries Christian Zionism combines perniciously with Prosperity Gospel preaching interpreting Genesis 12 3 as a divine map to gain blessings material and otherwise through complete and uncritical support for the modern day State of Israel Many African governments have come to understand that this support is lucrative and coercive African officials working with Israel learn that openly supporting Palestine will result in their partnerships with Israel being discontinued Contributors to this interdisciplinary volume analyze the meaning and ramifications of the emergence of Christian Zionist ideologies in Africa and its churches in interfaith work in politics in law and in the use and abuse of power between peoples of different races histories economic strength and influence on the international stage Defending Christian Zionism David Pawson,2014-01-14 Has God brought the Jewish people back to Palestine How can both Jews and Christians be God s chosen people How many covenants are there in the Bible Do all Christian Zionists accept dispensational teaching Does the God of Israel ever change his promises These are some of the questions that must be faced in the light of current attacks on Christian Zionism by some evangelical writers David Pawson believes that Christians need very clear biblical understanding before making political pronouncements about conflict in the Middle East

The New Christian Zionism Gerald R. McDermott,2016-09-10 Christian Zionism is often seen as the offspring of premillennial dispensationalism But the authors of this work contend that the biblical and theological connections between covenant and land are nearly as close in the New Testament as in Old Written with academic rigor this provocative volume proposes a place for Christian Zionism in an integrated biblical vision today

Christian Zionism 101 Albert J. McCarn,2025-01-17 Why would anyone want to be a Zionist Maybe because God is a Zionist as we learn from the Bible Thus says the LORD of hosts I am exceedingly jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion Zechariah 1:14 Zion is Jerusalem and the Land of Israel Simply put Zionism is the movement for the return of the Jewish people to their ancestral homeland and the resumption of Jewish sovereignty in the Land of Israel But why should Christians care Albert J McCarn provides ten answers to that question starting with the fact that Jesus is Jewish In this volume Bible believing Christians will find ample evidence in scripture for supporting the Jewish people and the Jewish State of Israel In addition there is the record of history the Judeo Christian foundation of our biblical worldview and the practical considerations of supporting the only liberal democracy in the Middle East

Mending the World? Niclas Blåder,Kristina Helgesson Kjellin,2017-06-16 Religion has played a major role in history affecting the course of events and influencing individuals Today one frequently hears the expression the return of religion but opinions differ as to how this return is to be understood It is clear that modernity and postmodernity have not meant that religion is dead or relegated to society's backyards. Religion is still of vital importance for many people. It has to some extent changed shape but has not lost its legitimacy and attractiveness to broad groups. Religion is public, visible, and has a sought-for voice, but it is also wrestling with extremism, ignorance, and preconceptions. Just like ideologies, religions are capable of activating diametrically opposite traits in humans. It is this dual tension that is implicit in the question mark in this book's title, Mending the World. This book's aim is to help explore whether, how, and in what ways religion, church, and theology can contribute constructively to the future of a global society. In thirty-one chapters, researchers from around the world address the relation between religion and society.

More Desired than Our Own Salvation Robert O. Smith, 2013-06-06. Millions of American Christians see U.S. support for the State of Israel as a God-ordained responsibility. American sympathies for the State of Israel are consistently and often substantially higher than for Arab states or Palestinians. More Desired than Our Own Salvation is a compelling historical look at how this consensus came to be. In 2006, John Hagee founded Christians United for Israel. Several high-level policymakers, both Christians and Jews, rushed to endorse the effort. Soon, however, questions arose about anti-Catholic and anti-Islamic ideas contained in Hagee's preaching and writing. More Desired than Our Own Salvation shows that these ideas draw from a long heritage of Anglo-American Protestant culture. Contemporary Christian Zionism may say more about American culture than most Americans care to admit. The roots of Christian Zionism in sixteenth and seventeenth-century Protestant interpretations of scripture and history formed not only Anglo-American theology but the foundations of American culture itself. Black Protestant views show, for instance, how Christian Zionism is connected intimately with racial identity and American exceptionalism, not just Christian beliefs. Martin Luther and John Calvin's identification of the Pope and the Turk as the two heads of the Antichrist echoes in our world today. Robert O. Smith has identified an English Protestant tradition of Judeo-centric prophecy interpretation that shaped Puritan commitment. In New England, this tradition informed the foundations of American identity. From the Cartwright Petition in 1649 to the Blackstone Memorial in 1891 to the work of John Hagee today, Christian Zionism has prepared the ground for Christians in the U.S. to see the modern State of Israel as a prophetic counterpart, a modern nation-state whose preservation may be more desired than our own salvation.
