Dining With Wine:

Everyday Dining with Wine Andrea Immer, Andrea Robinson, 2004 Andrea Immer has one of the world's best and least pretentious wine palates. In her debut cookbook she proves that her taste in food is just as finely honed and down to earth. Presenting 125 recipes that pair magnificently with wine, she shows how to bring these great flavor combinations to the dinner table with minimum fuss and at minimal cost. Her food and wine matches are guaranteed to make even weeknight meals special occasions. Wine enthusiasts and epicures alike could not be in better hands. World renowned Master Sommelier Andrea Immer is also a graduate of the French Culinary Institute where she refined her already formidable cooking skills and understanding of food flavors and where today she is dean of wine studies. In her new book she solves that most vexing dinner dilemma which wines to serve with what foods. Drawing on her sophisticated understanding of tastes, she offers up internationally inspired delicacies like Cumin crusted Lamb Fettucine with Prosciutto Sage and Mushrooms or Tarte Tatin with Bourbon and Vanilla. She also offers down home dishes like Fast Track Baby Back Ribs Turkey Quesadillas with Sesame Sweet Potato Mole Sauce or Cheese Grits with Shrimp and Chorizo. Everyday Dining with Wine is filled with recipes emphasizing a robust harmony of flavors for every course from soup to dessert. Andrea believes that wine should be a part of everyday dining for both pleasure and health. With this book in hand you can choose a recipe and then find the wine that complements it best or start with a special bottle and discover its perfect food partner. Here too are Andrea's answers to such common and perplexing questions as Where should I store my wine? Once I open a bottle how long will it be good? Does the shape and quality of glassware matter? Wine and food belong together whether for a weeknight meal or a dinner party. With Everyday Dining with Wine there is no guesswork involved in making any meal a cause for celebration.

Food, Wine and China Christof Pforr, Ian Phau, 2018-05-15 The growth of the Chinese economy and the emergence of the Chinese middle class have fuelled the rapid expansion of China's outbound tourism market with many destinations around the world trying to capitalise on the opportunities created by the growing number of Chinese visitors. This book specifically focuses on the demand for food and wine tourism experiences by Chinese tourists which in recent years has become an important constituent of destination competitiveness. Looking at the different ways in which individual destinations have responded to this increasing demand, this book provides a better understanding of the preferences, motivations and perceptions that underlie food and wine consumption by Chinese tourists. It also illustrates how food and wine tourism experiences have been used in a range of international destinations to specifically attract visitors from China. Including a range of case examples from the Asia Pacific region and Europe, this book ultimately investigates the strategic directions adopted to guide destination development and marketing initiatives. Such a perspective provides a novel contribution to the still limited body of knowledge on China outbound tourism and will be of interest to upper level students, researchers and academics in Tourism and Hospitality.
